Washington Adds To New York's Acclaim Of Returned Antarctic Explorers

FURTHER HONORS TO BE ACCORDED TONIGHT
Special Medal Of Honor To Be Presented To Byrd At Meeting Tonight

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 20.—The nation's acclaim such as is seldom accorded its heroes who gained fame in peaceful pursuits, came to Richard Evelyn Byrd and his stalwart companions of four-months in the Antarctic, at the capital today.
Byrd came, New York's overwhelming demonstration in his honor still fresh in mind, to receive from the president, a special medal struck by the national geographic society for his conquest of the South pole by air. The modest young rear admiral of the navy already had been given the Hubbard medal, awarded only seven others by the Geographic society, for his flight across the top of the world.

BROADWAY GIVES BYRD CHARACTERISTIC WELCOME

PA NEW OBSERVES

Thursday afternoon the stop signal on the traffic light at the corner of Mercer and East North street wasn't working. Pa. New hasn't inspected it today as yet.
A new gas line is being laid along Butler avenue.
A new storm sewer is being constructed just beyond the end of the paving on Neshannock avenue, at the entrance to the "Narrows."
There are a number of men in the city who are equipped to mow the weeds off vacant lots and who are desperately in need of the work. Secretary Orville Potter of the Red Cross reports that the return to civilization and their native country, and no doubt will go down into history as one of the most brilliant events of all time.
For almost an hour before the parade started at the Battery, thousands of busy New Yorkers thronged the streets and patiently waited the arrival of Rear Admiral Byrd. The recent crash in the stock market and the passing of the tariff bill at Washington, D. C. were momentarily forgotten. Executives and office workers alike sought vantage points all along Broadway, perching in precarious positions atop of skyscrapers and narrow ledges, while positions at windows in every downtown office building facing Broadway proved to be at a premium for the parade scheduled today. Ticker tape and paper were showered on the pedestrians, and Broadway was literally snowed under before the parade began. NEW YORK CITY, June 19.—Back from the dark frozen wastes of the Farthest South, today, came Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd and the members of his expedition to a warm welcome extended by the people of the world's greatest city.
New York paid homage to the intrepid explorers at noon today, the city going wild in its acclaim for this group of brave men who so fearlessly ventured to the unexplored Antarctic Regions two years ago. Today marked their return to civilization and their native country, and no doubt will go down into history as one of the most brilliant events of all time.

Rivers-Harbors Bill May Pass In Senate Today

Hopes Of Adjournment Revived As Senate Paves Way For Enactment Of Bill Today

PENSION BILL
NEXT IN LINE

Controversy Over Waterways Bill Overcome By Definite Restriction

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 20.—Hopes of administration leaders for adjournment of congress on June 28 were revived today as a result of the senate's action in settling all controversial features of the $136,000,000 rivers and harbors bill, and paving the way for its enactment this afternoon.
The legislative program called for consideration of the World War Pension act immediately after passage of the waterway bill. Under present plans, a final vote on the pension bill is expected by Saturday afternoon. After that, the only remaining legislation on the program would be the Parker Bus bill, although congress will remain in session until President Hoover has acted on both the waterway and pension bills.
The controversy over the waterway bill was settled when the senate voted 42 to 21 to place a definite restriction on the water to be taken from Lake Michigan in connection with development of the Illinois waterway.
Considerable Oratory
The pension bill faced considerable oratory, because of the cost of the relief proposed for World War veterans.
As reported to the senate, the bill carried provisions costing approximately $74,000,000 a year for three years. Other amendments pending would run the total to $200,000,000 or $300,000,000. It has been reliably reported that the senate will pass the bill today.

NEW ENON VALLEY ROAD MAY BE OPEN BY JULY 4

By July 4th it is estimated by the contractors in charge that the new road from Enon Valley to New Galilee will be ready for travel, although the finishing touches may not all be done by then. The work has been progressing rapidly, even day quick setting cement has been used, and the work is rolling along rapidly.
At the present time the road has been completed for about 2000 feet from the point of beginning in the boro of Enon Valley. In all there is about one and one quarter miles of the road, and in addition a bridge crossing the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks.
Bridge Floor Poured
The bridge is up, the floor has been poured, and some small finishing operations are now being done. The approach to the bridge is not paved nor will it be until the new ground used in the fill there, has settled. This will probably keep this short stretch unpaved until next summer. The only other unpaved piece that intervenes (Continued On Page Two)

NEW YORK, June 20.—Just had breakfast this morning with the Morrises and the Lindberghs. They are all feeling mighty fine over that election.
He made a pretty fair race without using Lindy at all. If he had used him those other poor fellows wouldn't have even carried their own wives' vote. He is anxious to get to Mexico now, and is leaving in a few days.

Open Road At Cascade Park

New Bridges And Approaches Put In Use On Thursday Afternoon

DETOUR IS CLOSED
AFTER YEAR'S USE

No more will it be necessary to detour at Cascade Park. At five fifteen Thursday evening the new bridge over the B. & P. tracks beyond the park was opened to traffic and the bridge is in use after over a year's use of a detour.
The foreman of the Wilson Company, Mr. McMillan formally opened the bridge, acting for his company which had the general contract for the bridge and approaches. With him was Harry Golder of the Woods and Golder Company, a group of workmen and spectators.
There was little ceremony. Mr. McMillan took down the barricade, the Cascade Park calliope started across and back of it a few cars that were waiting for the opening.
Workmen will be engaged on the bridge for several weeks yet. An apron five feet wide, sloped to allow (Continued On Page Two)

BESSEMER PREPARING TO CELEBRATE FOURTH

Bessemer, "the Boro of Bricks" or the "City of Cement," is going to celebrate July 4th this year in a way that will shade most of the other communities of Lawrence county. Not just a perfunctory celebration will this one be, but a celebration that will stand out over the entire county.
Beginning shortly after dawn, Bessemer will stage a celebration that will last until midnight, and with everybody in the boro interested in the affair, and everybody co-operating as they always do, success seems more than assured.
The day's celebration will open in the morning with a parade in which military and civilian forces will join. Roy Wallis will act as grand marshal of the parade and units from outside Bessemer will probably be seen in line.
Two baseball games will be on the sport program of the day, one in the morning and one in the afternoon, between Bessemer and Hillsville Prior to the afternoon game there will be a program of races and athletic events, with prizes for the winners. Carl Lago has charge of the sports program.
A carnival with all its attractions will be presented, but not by any carnival company. Instead, Bessemer residents will have charge of the attractions, guaranteeing that they will be run right. A merry-go-round and ferris wheel will be imported for the day and these attractions will probably be kept for the week. In the evening a fireworks display will furnish the day's entertainment.
Nothing will be left undone to make the day one to be remembered in Bessemer and Bessemerites are inviting all of Lawrence county and Eastern Ohio to join with them in the day. Carl Montgomery has been appointed the general chairman of the day, with the following committee aiding him. Charles Weitz, Roy Wallis, J. A. Johnson, Myron Smith, Paul Kanengeiser. The refreshment committee is composed of J. A. Johnson and J. D. Selzer.

Heads Of Store To Attend Fries Funeral In Erie

Learn Today Of Death Of Director's Son, Killed In Wisconsin Smash-up

Othmar P. Fries, son of P. O. Fries, of Erie, manager of the Erie Dry Goods Company and director of the New Castle Dry Goods store was instantly killed in an automobile accident near Appleton, Wis., officials of the local store learned today.

The younger Fries was merchandise manager of a dry goods firm at Oshkosh, Wis., and at the time of the accident was returning home from a business trip to Manitowish, Wis. Three other persons, occupants of the car which collided with the Fries machine, were almost instantly killed.

Both men are known in local business circles, the elder Mr. Fries especially.

Officials of the New Castle store will go to Erie tomorrow morning where it is expected his burial will take place. No definite word as to the time of the services could be learned.

venues between Enon and Galilee is a short piece in New Galilee that is being held open pending some changes there.

With bright weather such as we have had in the past two days continuing, the paving under construction should move rapidly. Inspectors of the State of Pennsylvania have been on the job constantly, and the work is being done to specification. A test made recently, of the cement work showed that it took 650 pounds pressure to the square inch to break the material. This is about 150 pounds more than is necessary.

The general contract on the job is being handled by Garrity and Parish of Youngstown, this firm doing the bridge. The roadwork is being done by the Diorio Company of Youngstown.

When completed the road will be a decided advantage to the residents of Enon Valley and all the country adjacent. It means that an Enon citizen can get over to Ellwood City by way of New Galilee and Koppel, instead of coming around by the way of New Castle. With the completion of the road from Ellwood City to Portersville it gives the people of the Enon corner of the county quick communication with the Perry Highway, and opens up country that has needed a hard road for years.

The road from Enon Valley to New Galilee is being built at the expense of the state. Lawrence County having to pay none of the expense. The date, July 4th, as the time for opening the road to motorists, is merely tentative and depends upon weather conditions, labor conditions, and other exigencies attendant to road building.

FORMER NEWS MAN WRITERS OF WELCOME ACCORDED TO BYRD

dropped overhead prior to the arrival of Byrd and his party at the Battery, making a picturesque setting for the great day of welcome.

Just a few minutes after the clock at the Old Trinity Church, corner of Wall Street and Broadway, had struck twelve, a resounding cheer echoed up the avenue of Broadway, and the parade was sighted as it rounded the oval, opposite the United States Customs Building at the Battery. Heading the procession was a marine pageant in which more than 2000 soldiers, sailors, marines, National Guardsmen, Boy Scouts and the famed Richmond Blues participated.

Directly behind this contingent came the first official car in which Rear Admiral Byrd rode with Ex-Commissioner Grover Whalen, chairman of the Mayor's Committee on reception of distinguished guests. Byrd was attired in a white uniform and showed no physical effects from his long sojourn in the Antarctic region where he won the honor of being the first individual to fly over the South Pole by airplane. Byrd waved enthusiastically to the huge throngs that yelled and cheer-1 for him and his party. He undoubtedly was given one of the biggest ovations ever accorded a returning hero to this country.

The parade moved up Broadway to City Hall where Mayor James J. Walker officially welcomed Rear Admiral Byrd and his companions to New York. After a series of luncheons and dinners Byrd and his associates will entertain for Washington, D. C., where they will be signally honored by President Hoover and other high officials, dignitaries, representatives of the arts and sciences who will unite in doing these men honor in this country.

You're the JUDGE

This was a trial for damages for injuries caused by a passenger by the collision of two street cars.

The street car company did not dispute the negligence of its employees that caused the accident, nor the extent of the injuries that this particular passenger suffered.

But it did argue, and it called upon its medical staff to testify on it, that if the passenger submitted to a practically safe surgical operation, his health would almost certainly be restored.

But the passenger refused to submit to an operation saving he feared it, and pressed his case for damages.

STAR LORE DISCOVERS NEPTUNE'S ROTATION

By Arthur De V. Carpenter

The planet Neptune presents a disk on the celestial sphere of about 2.5 seconds of arc and shows perfectly round and without surface markings, consequently with the ordinary methods used, it was impossible to determine whether it rotated, and if it did, which way—forward or backward. In 1928 Moore and Menzel at Lick observatory published an interesting account of their examination of Neptune's rotation by the spectroscopic method. They set the slit of the spectrocope parallel with Neptune's equator, and found the eastern limb of the planet was approaching while the western limb was receding. In fact, the period of Neptune's rotation turned out to be 15.8 hours.

The new police commissioner, issued orders which involve the shifting of approximately 1,000 officers and the scattering of high department officials. Regarded as the most drastic police department shakeup in years.

Under the new orders 700 detectives are to be put in uniform and made to patrol beats. The new plan leaves 200 picked men at the detective bureau under the direction of Lieut. John Norton, newly-appointed chief of detectives.

Among the commissioner's orders of demotion, promotion, warnings and commands was the abolition of five general police districts and the reduction of five deputy commissioners in charge of their civil service ranks of captain.

Although grand jury indictments have been expected little or no progress has been reported as yet in the investigation of the murder of Alfred Lingle. The reporter was put on the "spot" in broad daylight in a downtown railroad subway by a lone killer who escaped through the crowd.

drainage is being installed on the west side of the bridge, with a curb at the edge. At the height of this curbing will be a five foot cement walk. The addition of the apron makes the roadway 23 feet wide on the approach and the bridge, and gives cars more room to swing with the slight curve on the approach.

The approach has removed the abrupt climb formerly necessary before crossing the bridge and has made a gradual grade to the level of the road at the lower entrance of Cascade Park. The fill necessary to this work has put the old stone bridge far beneath the level of the road and no trace of the old stone bridge is visible, save where it juts out into the Big Run, and this has been faced with concrete.

PRESIDENT GREETES BYRD AND PARTY AT WHITE HOUSE

special train with his party of eighty who participated with him on the Antarctic expedition—half of whom went to the bottom of the world with him—were Mrs. Byrd and the Byrd children who had waited patiently in their New England home.

The explorer was greeted by a committee headed by under Secretary of the Navy Jahncke, Dr. Gilbert P. Grosvenor, president of the Geographical Society, Rear Admiral William A. Moffett and others.

Several hundred persons were gathered at the station and they cheered vociferously as the admiral, clad in his white naval officer's uniform, walked through the line formed by the police to the station's presidential waiting room.

Outside Byrd and Jahncke talked for the sound motion pictures. Jahncke said the navy was proud of Byrd for his achievements and Byrd replied he was thankful that several navy men were included in his party and that they had lived up to the traditions of the service.

Thousands Welcome Him

On the streets surrounding the depot several thousand persons were gathered on the sidewalks to greet the heroes of the air.

The president greeted the Byrd party at the White House at 12:30 p. m. At three Byrd will go down among the admirals, with whom he now ranks by a special act of Congress as a reward for his polar travels. At the Navy department he said his official call upon acting Secretary of the Navy Ernest Lee Jahncke, and then on the bureau chiefs among whom will be the chief of the bureau of navigation. It was this bureau which in accordance with strict navy custom, had refused to order a navy tug to southern waters to tow Byrd's sailing ship. The City of New York, into the Panama canal from far out to sea. The bureau acted on a theory that the Byrd expedition was a commercial affair, only to have Secretary of the Navy James C. Dyer, override the decision, because Byrd's accomplishments had been of scientific value to the nation.

Byrd then paid tribute to his friend and his companion on the North pole—Arling Bennett now at rest in Arlington.

Byrd placed wreaths on the graves of Bennett, Wilkes, an American explorer of the Arctic 90 years ago, and Peary, discoverer of the North pole—all navy men.

Tonight the modest hero must stand before a crowded auditorium and listen to his praises from the president and officers of the society which will honor him. A colorful program has been arranged during which the marine band will give a special program, and the large Washington auditorium will be decorated as for a gala event.

High government officials, members of the diplomatic corps and the capital's elite will be given places of honor, and the Byrd family will occupy a special box.

RIVERS HARBORS BILL MAY PASS IN SENATE TODAY

ported President Hoover will veto this bill if in its final form, it requires more than $50,000,000.

If the bill is vetoed, an effort will be made to pass it over executive opposition, as was the Spanish-American War Pension Act.

Both the waterway and pension bills must return to the house after the senate has acted. To iron out differences between the two branches of congress, even though the senate added important items to the house waterway bill and "tuck out" house provisions in the pension act.

Among the important provisions of the waterway bill are:

$29,266,400 appropriation for improving connecting channels in the Great Lakes.

$2,500,000 yearly appropriation for operating state-owned Erie-Oswego Canal in New York.

$3,615,000 fund for developing the Allegheny river in Pennsylvania.

Deaths of the Day

George Beljanski

George Beljanski, aged 28, Detroit, Mich., died in that city Monday, 9 a. m., following an appendicitis operation.

He was the son of Angelina and Marko Beljanski of Jugo-Slavia and until two years ago was a resident of Youngstown, at that time going to Detroit, where he was employed as sales manager for the Kroikin Wholesale Dry Goods Company.

He is survived by his parents and a brother, Presto, in Jugo-Slavia and a cousin, Mrs. Helen Rakage, of this city.

The body has been brought to this city to the home of Mrs. Helen Rakage, 319 Bell avenue, from where funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:30 D. S. T.

William J. Pinkerton

William J. Pinkerton, aged 69, a retired farmer of Lawrence county died at the family home on R. D. 3, this morning at 12:35 following an illness of heart trouble.

Mr. Pinkerton was born in Lawrence county May 10, 1861, the son of Samuel and Sarah Pinkerton on the farm where his great grandfather was the original settler and has lived his entire life on this farm.

He was a member of the King's Chapel Methodist Episcopal church. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary P. Donaldson Pinkerton, and three children, C. U. Pinkerton of R. D. 3, Mrs. P. S. Emery of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, and P. A. Pinkerton of this city. An infant son preceded him in death. Six grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. E. S. T. from the family residence and interment will be made in Fair Oaks cemetery.

Mrs. Anna Lena Edwards

Mrs. Anna Lena Edwards, aged 74, widow of John M. Edwards, died at the family home in Wayne township, Thursday at 3 p. m., following a long illness.

Mrs. Edwards had lived in the same community practically all her life and was well known, highly respected and loved by a wide circle of friends.

She is survived by two daughters, Margaret of Beaver Falls, and Josie at home, and two sons, James M. of New Castle and Harrison of Montana.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. D. S. T. from the family home with Rev. J. Bingham in charge. Interment will be made in Grandview cemetery, Beaver Falls.

PROTEST STATE ORDER AFFECTING FIREWORKS PLANT

is a possibility that the rule, if carried out, will either drive the companies out of business or force them to move.

Sometime after the first of this month the department sent out notices that on and after June 14th, no fireworks could be manufactured in the wooden sheds that are used by the companies. The rule provides for concrete construction. The time set down in the rule was so short that the companies had no time to comply with it and as a result have been forced to suspend manufacturing, with a consequent laying off of employees. A modification of the rule was granted which permits them to assemble materials now manufactured.

To Protest It—"This is our busy season," said Paolo Rozzi, president of the New Castle Fireworks Company, "and we have contracts upon which we should be working. However, under the rule we cannot, and although we have an architect at work drawing plans for our new concrete buildings, these cannot be built for some time as a consequence we must remain idle."

At least two of the five companies in this county have indicated that their plants are for sale as a result of the order and men and women who have been employed there are out of work. An appeal is to be made to the Department of Labor and Industries in the hope that some plan may be worked out whereby the matter may be settled to the satisfaction of the state and to the companies.

Price Reports On Patrols' Activity

HARRISBURG, June 20—During the month of May according to the report of Captain Wilson C. Price, Superintendent of the State Highway Patrol, attacks of the patrol covered 490,000 miles, making a total for the year 1930 of 2,555,169 miles.

The patrol examined more than 23,000 applicants for the driving privilege, of whom 20,285 passed and 789 failed. Eventually the majority of the latter will succeed in meeting the tests.

Seventy-five thousand warnings were issued to operators of motor vehicles, and $45,600 in fines collected. The fines for the year to June 1, totaled $222,311.07.

Bell Office Again Wins New Era Cups

Both the plant department and commercial departments of the New Castle district of the Bell Telephone Company, again won the New Era sales cups for the month of May for the most volume of sales.

This is the third month this year that the plant department has won the cup, and the second that the commercial department has captured the prize, which will be awarded at the end of the year to the district winning it the most times during the 12-month period.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stillstrom of Sharon, formerly of New Castle, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Nell, to D. William A. Applegate of Sharon. The engagement will terminate in a wedding on July 2 at St. John's Episcopal church of Sharon.

Miss Stillstrom is a graduate of the Farrell high school and Grove City College. Dr. Applegate was graduated from Sharon High school, University of West Virginia and received his M. D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He will finish his internship July 1 at the Allegheny General hospital in Pittsburgh.

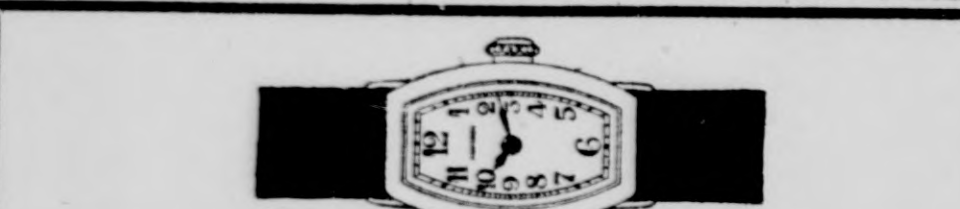

Miss Stillstrom has chosen her sister Margaret as maid of honor. Mrs. John Alter as matron of honor, and Miss Gertrude Hill of Akron, Ohio, and Miss Hazel Burrows of Grove City as bridesmaids.

Attorney Walter Applegate will serve his brother as best man while Dr. John Alter, Dr. Chester Beall from Morgantown, West Virginia, Dr. Willard Trushel of Warren, Pa., and Dr. Sterrett Dietrick of Pittsburgh will act as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony, a wedding dinner will be served to the bridal party and the immediate families of the bride and groom.

Miss Mails Entertains

Miss Lena Mails of Croton avenue was a pleasing hostess Thursday evening when she entertained at a regular meeting of the C. S. C. Club. The hours were spent informally and proved enjoyable to those present. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess at a reasonable hour. Plans were made for a moonlight supper at Cascade Park on Tuesday evening, June 24. The Misses Rose and Marie Pavla will be hostesses to the club in two weeks.

Thursday, June 19 marked another social event that was much enjoyed when members of the J. A. M. Club met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Maloney on Hillcrest avenue for a one o'clock luncheon. Covers were laid for 12 at a table beautifully arranged in hues of various colors and a large bouquet of Spring flowers forming the centerpiece. At the conclusion of a delicious menu, served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. W. Bennett Kilmer and Mrs. Jay Bumbaugh, a social hour was enjoyed.

As a special feature of the gathering, Mrs. C. A. Woods presented Mrs. Maloney a beautiful gift of china in honor of those in attendance which was graciously received. Card tables were later in play with lovely prizes being awarded to Mrs. J. Harvey Gwin and Walter Smith for honors.

Special guests of the occasion were Mrs. Frank McArthur, Mrs. George Kutz of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Joseph Blue and children, Junior and Violet of Youngstown, O. and Mrs. John Grise of Girard, O.

Plans were started for a picnic to be held at Gwinn cottage on the Harlanburg road in the near future, the date to be announced later.

ATTEND RECEPTION AT BEAVER FALLS

New Castle O. E. S. chapters were well represented at the luncheon and reception given for Mrs. Carrie Crisswell, grand worthy matron of the state of Pennsylvania, in the General Broadhead Hotel, Beaver Falls, Wednesday.

Among those in attendance from New Castle were Mrs. Mae Young, Mrs. Bertha Treser, Mrs. Estella Weddell, Mrs. Belva Bridenbaugh, Mrs. Birdie Sturdy, Mrs. Lucy Round, Mrs. Caroline Hines, Mrs. Marguerite Geary, Mrs. Flora DeVassie, Mrs. Anna Dickey, Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mrs. Jean Thompson and the Misses Jean and Margaret Young.

True Blue Class
Thirty five members of the True Blue class of the East Brook M. E. church and friends were entertained Tuesday evening in the home of Philip McCreary. Mrs. Pearl Cook is teacher of the class. During the business meeting plans were discussed for a play to be given in the near future.

Following the business meeting a social evening was enjoyed spent in games. Later the group gathered around a bonfire and roasted wieners and toasted marshmallows.

Good Time Club
The Good Time Club members met at the home of Mrs. Grace Hoch on Thursday evening on the Wilmington road, with cards forming the chief diversion.

CLARA BOW AT THE PENN THEATRE

"True to the Navy," Will Be Shown at the Penn Theatre Next Week Starting Monday

Clara's singing voice is one of the big features of "True to the Navy." She croons "There Is Only One Who Matters to Me" as nobody else could. It's no wonder all the sailors believe her when she says it. Clara looks marvelous as she sings the number. She sings with her voice, with her eyes, with her whole body, with all her personality. And Clara Bow's singing is all the more delightful because it is a surprise talent.

A beautiful portrait of Clara Bow will be given as long as they last to all patrons attending the matinees. The supply is limited so come early in the week.

WILL CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Vandergrift of Copley, Ohio, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on June 21 at their home when relatives and friends will gather on this memorable day for a dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Vandergrift were married in New Castle, June 17, 1880, with the Rev. O. L. Meade performing, then pastor of the Epworth church. Mrs. Vandergrift was formerly Elizabeth Gott of this city.

They are the parents of one daughter, Mrs. Edward Haines of Akron, Ohio.

Tuesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Joseph Lindsay of County Line street was a charming hostess to associates of the Tuesday Bridge Club when they met for their regular meeting a 1 o'clock luncheon featuring the gathering.

Appointments of green and yellow were cleverly carried out, with a large bowl containing yellow and white daisies surrounding a novel frog, which formed the centerpiece. Each guest received a miniature painted frog as favors.

Three tables of cards were later in vogue, prizes going to Mrs. S. M. Kincaid and Mrs. A. C. Miller for holding honors. As a special guest of the occasion, the club had Miss Marjorie Moser.

On July 1 the club will assemble at the Municipal Golf Course for a 1 o'clock luncheon.

Class Has Shower

Honoring the young son, Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beatty, West Washington street, the members of the W. A. C. Class of the Wesley Methodist church met at the Beatty home Wednesday evening.

The newly arrived son was the recipient of many lovely gifts. A business session was held and officers for the ensuing year elected. Those chosen were: president, Mrs. J. Gardockey; vice president, Mrs. E. Beatty; secretary, Mrs. Jack Grizzle; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Coblenz and chaplain, Mrs. M. Vyrle.

The class planned to hold their annual picnic some time in July and after a social hour the hostess served a dainty lunch.

Evening Bridge

Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Booher of North street entertained a number of guests in their home Thursday evening at a bridge party. Two tables were in play. High score prizes were won by Garfield Davis and Mrs. Thomas Lewis.

At a seasonable hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Booher assisted by Mrs. George Nickerson. Green and white tones were carried out in serving.

N. C. T. Club

A picnic supper featured the meeting of the N. C. T. club last evening when they gathered at Cascade Park with their families as guests. Flowers decorated the table in the grove where an appetizing menu was served, after which the park amusements were enjoyed.

Plans were made at this time for another picnic to take place on June 28 at Rock Springs Park in West Virginia with the families as guests.

St. Joseph's 500 Club

The St. Joseph's 500 Club met on Wednesday afternoon in their hall with a social time spent in cards being enjoyed, with favors going to Mrs. P. P. Capitola and Mrs. James Fee for holding honors. ## "THE TEXAN" AT THE REGENT

This All Talking Sensation Coming to the Regent Monday.

"The Texan," a new Paramount all-talking picture featuring Gary Cooper and Fay Wray which will be shown at the Regent theatre beginning Monday, is based on a short story by America's best-loved writer—O. Henry.

O. Henry never wrote a more thrilling adventure-tale, Gary Cooper never played a more glamorous part than he does in "The Texan."

L. A. B. CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Jack Sweet entertained in a pleasing manner, members of the L. A. B. Club in her home on Warren avenue last evening with 12 present. A brief business session was called when matters of interest to the club were brought up, later following by a social time. Partywork and music were forms of entertainment, with the regular club prize being awarded to Mrs. William Elgess. A dainty lunch was served in the dining room by the hostess, the table being decorated in keeping with the season, with a large basket of roses forming the centerpiece. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. William Elgess and Mrs. Anna Williams.

July 10 the club will assemble at the home of Mrs. James McCullough on Warren avenue.

REUNITED LEAGUE PLANS BREAKFAST

An interesting as well as entertaining was the meeting of the Reunited Ladies League Thursday evening when they gathered with Mrs. Promie Davis at the Legion Home on North Jefferson street with 16 members present. As a special guest of the occasion, the ladies had Mrs. Homer Beck and Mrs. Vance Burkholder, who were also aides in serving a most delectable lunch. Various bouquets of Spring flowers were used in profusion throughout the home forming a colorful background.

Plans were completed for a breakfast to be held at Cascade Park on Wednesday, June 25 at 8:30 o'clock. The next regular meeting will occur July 17 at the home of Mrs. Charles Strong on North Beaver street.

Kolodziej-Golis.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in Madonna of Czestochova church when Miss Frances Kolodziej, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ignatz Kolodziej, Elmwood avenue, was united in marriage to John J. Golis, son of the Rev. Fr. Francis Baczewski performed the ring service.

Miss Frances Plonka was maid of honor and George Shelloff served as best man. Miss Wanda Kucharski and Miss Clara Gajewski were bridesmaids. Casimir Kolodziej, brother of the bride, and Marion Kolodziej were ushers. Frances Golis, little niece of the groom, was a ring bearer.

Mrs. Golis is well known among her friends. Mr. Golis is an officer of the local police department.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Golis left for a motor trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Canada. After June 30 they will be at home to their friends at 1706 Morris street.

Rainbow Club

The Rainbow Club members enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Carl Kunk when she entertained in her home on North Crawford avenue last evening, with Mrs. Thomas Nolan as a special visitor.

Business of the club was transacted with a social hour following being indulged in games of various sorts and 500. The club prize was awarded to Mrs. George Galbraith at this time, with other prizes for the evening being awarded to Mrs. Roy E. Long and Mrs. Eugene Hall. At a suitable time the hostess served a delicious lunch assisted by Mrs. Thomas Nolan.

DOG MENACE IN CITY AGAIN

WITH frequent reports being made of children and adults in this city being attacked and bitten by dogs, and with three such instances coming to notice of the police yesterday, citizens of New Castle are aware that the dog menace is again in evidence.

It is scant relief to the situation to know that after a man or woman or some child has been bitten that the "dog has been ordered tied up for observation."

There should be some effective means of ridding this city of this menace.

Dog owners in the city are within their rights in keeping dogs if they see to it that they are properly tied up, otherwise they are not.

However, the greatest menace does not come from dogs that are licensed and owned by residents, it comes from the stray dogs which run at large and seem to be owned by nobody.

Years ago, a dog catcher was authorized to tour the city and collect these stray dogs, and any others not properly licensed and tied, and there were some effective results.

Then the law was changed and the responsibility for ridding the city of stray dogs was placed up to the police and constables. While it is realized that police and constables probably do not relish this task, yet, it's part of their duty and until some change is made whereby other means are provided for ridding the city of the dog menace, the police should effectively enforce the dog laws.

It is a time for action!

THE LAST TOLL ROAD AND THE FIRST

Two months ago came the announcement that negotiations were closing to free the last pike in Pennsylvania from tolls. But a hitch over the agreements brought a delay which ended this week, when gates were closed for the last time on the New Holland route in Lancaster county. Formal transfer to the State Highway Department will take place as soon as the deed is signed.

Perhaps the final chapter in the epoch of privately financed roads deserves more attention than this incident has received. But we have grown so accustomed to the new dispensation that lingering vestiges of the old can scarcely be regarded with more than local notice. They were lost to sight in the network of concrete ribbons which the commonwealth wove over the landscape, and the sites of their deserted villages attracted only the curious.

It was fitting that the obsequies to a departed tradition should take place in Lancaster, where was also the terminal of the first extensive turnpike in the United States. It was built from Philadelphia and opened in 1795. By 1822, according to a report to the state senate, it offered, with projected connecting roads to northern and western sections of Pennsylvania, facilities for traveling and transportation unequalled elsewhere in the country. Now a century later the state retains its primacy in the accessibility of various sections to modern vehicular travel.

Some of the same rate-fixing principles survive today. The toll price varied upward with the number of horses driven and the number of wheels on the conveyance. The charges favored wide tires over narrow ones, just as present automobiles theoretically pay in proportion to the damage they impose on the surface. In winter loads over seven tons were forbidden, though up to eight tons were permitted in summer. In view of the increased wear on roads during the snow and slush period a corresponding restriction might again be profitably enforced against automobiles and trucks.

ARE MANNERS BETTER?

Now here is happy news, if true. Canon Newbolt, famous London churchman, for 40 years on the staff of St. Paul's cathedral, says that manners today are better than they were during the generation before. When a "gentleman of the old school" testifies to that we are impressed. But perhaps he is saying that just because he is a gentleman of the old school and doesn't want to hurt the feelings of the moderns.

TIME PASSES

Scientific men are interested in the discovery of the fossil of a fish said to be at least 200 million years old. Dr. Heintz, of the famous museum in Oslo, Norway, says, indeed, that the fish probably lived 300 million years ago in a sea that covered much or perhaps all of North America.

That's a long time ago—300 million years. It's good for us to contemplate life and time on a large scale. It makes us more tranquil and less likely to be nervous and impatient because we can't wait until day after tomorrow for something we want today.

THIS TOO

Speaking of time which actually can go on for a hundred million years and which also has the capacity for making us unhappy because it goes so slowly for a day, do you remember the old monarch who wanted the perfect slogan? After consulting the wise men of his realm he accepted a motto to hang above his doorway.

"This, too, shall pass away."
In his hours of delight the words kept him from setting too much store by any earthly pleasure. In his hours of depression the motto kept him

SAD IS THE DAY—

For a boy when he decides his father cannot tell him anything more.

For a town when two trusted leaders have a personal quarrel.

For a church when one man has enough money to decide all its policies.

For a school when authority passes into the hands of the pupils.

For a home when both parents carry their quarrels to the neighbors.

For a man when he becomes satisfied with the life he is living.

For a family when each considers the home the other's responsibility.

AN ENGLISH newspaper suggests that Europe should unite against us in an economic boycott as European countries united against Germany in 1914.

It would be too bad to have an industrial, economic fight. But, fortunately, we are ready for it, if it must come.

THE TEN BILLIONS that we sent to our dear friends in Europe last time would be spent on our own fight this time, and 100 billions more if necessary.

Three American workmen can produce as much steel as ten British workmen.

Ten American automobile mechanics can produce as many automobiles as 100 French, German or British mechanics.

We are meek and peaceful, but if they want to fight, they probably can get it.

A NEW Republican band wagon has started on its way toward 1932, labeled "wet" and Dwight W. Morrow, the first passenger, sits smiling on the top seat. Other seats will be crowded soon, for Mr. Morrow, "moderate wet," beat his dry opponents in New Jersey more than 3 to 1.

MR. EINSTEIN says space is the important thing. He may be right, but the genius of man is making space less important every day.

Yesterday, at a World Power Conference in Berlin high powered scientists discussed the latest possibilities of applying electric and other power. At the same time the United States National Electric Light Association was meeting in San Francisco.

SCIENTISTS, using the worldwide radio system provided by M. H. Aylesworth, head of the American National Broadcasting System, talked and listened to each other as though they were in one room. In fact, they were thousands of miles apart.

IN SAN FRANCISCO, Owen D. Young, chairman of the General Electric Company, talked and listened to the men in Berlin. In London, Marconi, great Italian, talked to the Berlin and San Francisco scientists. Delegates representing the German government talked to Americans in San Francisco where Matthew S. Sloan, president of the National Electric Light Association, gave information about American methods.

WHEN Owen D. Young finished with the Berlin scientists, Mr. Thomas A. Edison, greatest of them all, walked to the microphone in New Jersey and talked to Berlin, San Francisco and London at the same time, men in all three cities hearing him, within the same fraction of second.

That is a real miracle.

A BUSY and somewhat agitated day in Wall Street yesterday, 6,425,630 shares of stock being sold. The selling was orderly, no sign of panic. There is comfort in the reflection that somebody must have bought everything that was sold.

A FEW months ago, twenty million Americans were buying foolishly. Now, they are selling foolishly. Later on they will regret today's selling as much as they recently regretted hasty buying.

IN NEW YORK some man, probably a maniac, killed two and wrote to a newspaper promising to kill another last night, and thirteen more later.

For reasons not clear the killer selects as victims men sitting with women in cars parked in isolated places. In his district the parking of such cars will probably diminish during the next few evenings.

KILLING without motive, it may be impossible to find him as it was impossible to find the notorious "Jack the Ripper" who had killed so many women in London.

The incident should convince men, and their women companions, especially, that it is foolish to risk murder, robbery and disgrace, as thousands do now every day.

Gangland's Waterloo Seen In Murder Of Reporter

Challenge From Gangsters Accepted By Press Of Country As Incentive To Effective War Against Criminal Organizations

American press comment on the murder by gangsters of Alfred Lingle, Chicago reporter, reveals a settled conviction that by going outside its own ranks for a victim, organized crime has been put on the defensive, and that both the actual slayer and his sponsors will be punished. There is also a strong belief that gangland itself is in greater danger of having aroused the indignation of the press.

"If the press will pursue it uniformly avowed course to the finish" where that leads, "asserts the LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL, "it will triumph, and it will catch a lot of people who are not gangsters." The SEATTLE TIMES avers that the challenge "cannot and will not be ignored," and that "the test of strength between gangland and law-abiding people is at hand." The OMAHA WORLD-HERALD thinks "if this latest murder should prove the turning point, if the press at last gains strength to war with the gangs; then Chicago will redeem itself; that 'surely by now it has learned the costly lesson.'"

"Inasmuch as the death of Lingle has whipped the press of the city into a fighting mood," in the judgment of the HARTFORD COURANT, "the result may be not only the arrest and punishment of his murderers, but the extinction wholesale of the parasites who, during the last several years, have made the name of Chicago a sure-fire joke." The CHARLOTTE OBSERVER advises that "Chicago has the chance to redeem itself by driving out, for once and for all, the menace to free government and righteousness living which its citizenship is having to put up with."

The murder "may and should excite public wrath until the last vestige of tolerance in dealing with gangsters shall have been banished," states the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN. That corrupt politics must be attacked is the advice of the PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE, the SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS, the ST. PAUL PIONEER PRESS, the DAILY BUREAU EVENING NEWS, the CHARLESTON DAILY MAIL and the ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS. The FLINT DAILY JOURNAL is impressed by the lesson that "Chicago must realize that it will have to value human life more dearly."

The DAYTON DAILY NEWS, whose owners have faced a similar tragedy in Ohio, declares that "if the people of the United States do not now get an idea of the alliance between crime and politics which everywhere menaces the integrity of their governments, it is because they cannot or will not read." ### EXPERIENCE

In school he learned to read and write.
To add, divide, subtract.
By patient study, day and night.
He gathered many a fact.
In algebra he managed well.
The poets he could quote.
But no one ever thought to tell him not to sign a note.

He passed in French and Latin, too.
His teachers thought him smart.
Problems in physics he could do.
Shakespeare he knew by heart.
For life they thought him fully trained.

And competent to vote.
But no one told him explained.
The danger of a note.

At thirty-five he had forgot.
The good old Latin course.
But he had sadly learned just what occurs when we endorse.
Though he no longer pondered over
The stuff which Plato wrote.
He well remembered never more
To sign another note.

And he remembered stock in mines
Is dangerous stuff to buy.
That all not golden is which shines
And figures sometimes lie.

For none is wise, although he earns
All scholarships in math.
Until those bitter facts he learns Experience has to teach.

Board Of Directors Of New Castle Chamber Of Commerce Discusses Question

TAX COMMITTEE TO HOLD MEETING TODAY

Recommendations Of Committee Will Be Submitted At State Meeting In Lancaster

At the meeting of the board of directors of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, held in the Castleton room, Thursday, June 19th, and which was presided over by President L. G. Genkinger, considerable discussion was held on a study being made by the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce through local Chambers of Commerce of methods to produce more equitable means of assessments for taxes.

The Chamber of Commerce taxation committee, of which Jas. K. Love is chairman and which is composed of Hon. George T. Weingartner, D. B. Woodcock, Hon. W. H. Gillespie, P. O. Elder, W. F. Moody and D. S. Pyle, will meet in the board of directors' rooms of the Chamber of Commerce at 3:30 p. m. Friday, June 20th, to make a study of the recommendations of the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce and their report will be submitted to the board of the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce by State Chamber Director D. S. Pyle at the meeting to be held in Lancaster, Pa., Tuesday, June 24th.

A very encouraging report on the progress of the waterways development was received, and Hon. Fred L. Rentz gave a good report on the G. A. R. convention held in New Castle June 7 to 14.

Several industrial matters were discussed and a special industrial committee, of which D. S. Pyle is chairman, and which consists of Messrs. Pyle, R. J. Tully, P. J. Flaherty, Adolph Green and E. W. Beadel, was continued. This committee is making an analysis of an industrial matter for New Castle, and progress was reported.

President Genkinger, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce air mail committee, reported progress in this matter and stated this effort would be continued.

A report was received from a special committee of which Frank S. Hoyt is chairman.

It was decided that the board of directors would hold meetings during July and August at the call of the president.

The directors of the Chamber who were present at Thursday's meeting were: Messrs. P. J. Flaherty, L. G. Genkinger, T. H. Hartman, John H. Lamb, Jas. K. Love, W. F. Moody, W. J. Offutt, D. S. Pyle, Hon. Fred L. Rentz, James M. Smith Sr., T. W. Dickey, H. B. Richards and Secretary Chilton. Messrs. E. W. Beadel and Adolph Green were also present.

Son Of Rodin Lives In Seclusion

(International News Service)
MEUDON, Seine et Oise, June 20.—Unknown and forgotten, the only son of the great French sculptor, Rodin, has recently been discovered by the reporter of a French evening paper, living in the little annex of the museum of this village near Paris. Modest and apparently little occupied with the fame of his father, he lives under the name of Monsieur D. . . . and as an honest workman goes to his work early in the morning, returning late at night, seldom making conversation with his neighbors.

Explain divorces? Well, a woman sees a movie hero making passionate love and then goes home to a husband who says "Uh huh" when asked if he loves her.

Memorial To Harding To Be Dedicated

MARION, O., June 20.—The magnificent Harding Memorial tribute of the nation to the late Warren G. Harding, has been completed and is ready for dedication here.

Five years have elapsed since the tedious construction program began and though the memorial proper was completed in 1929, its elaborate landscaping and interlocking boulevard system were not finished until this year.

Plans for the dedication are indefinite. President Hoover has been asked and has signified he will deliver the dedicatory address and the Harding Memorial Association, which has charge of the memorial, is awaiting his convenience. This is expected some time this summer when the pressure of Mr. Hoover's executive duties is lessened.

It was shortly after President Harding's death that the memorial plan was conceived and within a few months public and private contributions, coming from throughout the land, made possible its fruition.

The bodies of President and Mrs. Harding have been interred in the memorial sarcophagi since early in 1927, after their removal from their temporary resting place in the mausoleum of Marion cemetery.

Each rests in a concrete vault, beneath massive marble slabs in the center of the Georgian marble edifice. Forty-eight columns of marble, each representing a state, tower above the tomb.

The memorial is of Grecian architecture, circular in shape, and was erected at a cost of $300,000. Contributions for it were so extensive that it is entirely paid for and the memorial association has on hand $175,000 for maintenance.

GIFT TO OLD VETERANS

G. A. R. Veteran Morgan Exhibited Gift From New Castle Editor

Editor and President Fred L. Rentz, of the New Castle, Pa., "News," won the hearts of all old veterans of the Civil War at the state convention held in that city from June 8th to 12th, by presenting to each a gold plated key to the City of New Castle, eight inches in length, and with a thermometer thereon, as a souvenir.

George F. Morgan, an active worker of the local G. A. R. was the recipient of one of the valued souvenirs, and he took pleasure in showing it to his many friends about the city, complimenting Editor Rentz on his enterprise.

Mr. Morgan was accompanied to the convention by his wife, other Pottsville people present from kindred organizations were Mrs. W. J. Calhoun, Mrs. Elmer E. Hoffman, Mrs. Auchenbach, all of auxiliaries of the soldier organizations.

New Castle entertained their guests elaborately, and they returned home much pleased with their reception. There were over one hundred Civil War Vets present. The parade in their honor consisted of organization of G. A. R. Auxiliaries, Cavalry, American Legion, Sons of Veterans and Daughters of Veterans, forming a notable gathering to do honor to the rapidly diminishing old soldiers.

Bridge Collapses, Three Meet Death

Three Workmen Killed And Six Injured When Bridge
In Maryland Falls

Party Of Punksutawney Motorists Narrowly Escape Death About To Cross Bridge

(International News Service)
FREDERICK, Md., June 20.—Authorities were investigating today the collapse of the bridge across the Monocacy river south of here late yesterday, which cost three lives and injured six persons, all workmen repairing the bridge.

The collapse occurred after a truck laden with stone, had tried to cross.
It is believed the vibration weakened the structure.

The dead are: James Gue, 30, of Frederick; Edgar Lang, 30, Savage, Md.; and D. C. Bortner, 63, of Baltimore.

The injured were brought to Frederick City hospital.

All nine men were hurled into the river, and the dead were caught in the wreckage and drowned. The workmen had finished flooring the east roadway, and were at the north end with their welding tools when the crash occurred.

A bare six inches of land saved D.
Williams of Punksutawney, Pa., and his family who were about to drive over the structure. Williams saw the bridge sway and called a warning to his son Horace, 20, who was driving. The car was stopped on the brink with the front wheels protruding over the river 20 feet below.

In the car were also Mrs. Williams, a daughter, Miriam, 13, and a younger son.

The truck which caused the collapse went down into the river, but the driver, Richard Morgan, of Boonsboro, Md., was uninjured. He said he could not explain the accident because he had crossed the bridge many times, and always slowly.

Two Found Guilty On Larceny Charge

Jury Finds Pair Guilty Of Taking Money From Girl
Messenger

Leonard M. Smith and Mose Stewart, who were tried before Judge Hildebrand yesterday on a charge of larceny from the person, were found guilty. The charge was in connection with the theft of $455 from Helen Budzowski, whose father, Henry Budzowski, runs the New Model Baking plant in South New Castle. The money is alleged to have been taken from the little girl by Harry Isaac, who entered a plea. After his arrest he implicated Smith and Stewart in the plot.

The rich have fewer children. Or perhaps, lacking children, they just have to get rich enough to hire servants instead.

Talkies didn't originate the idea.
The war gave us that great theme song, "Mademoiselle from Armenieres."

Service: The fancy touch, furnished larger.

Youth Is Held For Shooting Of His Step-Father

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, June 20.—Elmer Rogers 17-year-old high school boy, was held in technical custody today after having shot and probably fatally wounded his step-father, Earl Felton, who, the youth told police, had cursed and abused the boy's 15-year-old sister.

Angered at the way his sister was being treated, the youth said he seized a gun belonging to his step-father and fired six shots at Felton. One took effect just below the heart.

Former Big League Catcher Is Dead

G. Lewis McCarthy, Formerly
With Brooklyn, St. Louis And Giants Is Dead

(International News Service)
READING, June 20.—G. Lewis Mc-Carthy, former Major League catcher, died at his home here today of heart trouble. He formerly played with the New York Giants, Brooklyn and St. Louis Cardinals, prior to going to Kansas City and later to Baltimore.
At the latter city, he is credited with having developed "Lefty" Groves, now one of Connie Mack's star pitchers of his Philadelphia Athletics. McCarthy led the Charlotte team to a South Atlantic League pennant four years ago.

Polish Frontier Guard Is Killed

Renewal Of German-Polish Frontier Battles May Take Place Over Incident

(International News Service)
LYCK, East Prussia, June 20.—Renewal of the German-Polish frontier conflict seemed inevitable here today over the action of a German border guard who shot and killed a Polish frontier guard near Prostau.

German investigation of the affair sought to establish self-defense and in the first findings of the investigation it was reported that the patrolling guard met the Pole on German soil. The latter opened fire immediately and the German, replying, killed his opponent.

The Polish guard's body was seized and taken to Lyck.

Reichsbank Lowers Rediscount Rate

(International News Service)
BERLIN, June 20.—The Reichsbank reduced its rediscount rate from 4½ to 4 per cent today.

The German bank followed the trend downward of all Central banks of Europe and the United States Federal Reserve Bank of New York's reduction of yesterday.

Easing of rates has had a salutory effect, too, on the reparations bonds of the International Bank of Settlement.

Detroit Bandit Shot To Death

(International News Service)
DETROIT, June 20.—One bandit was shot and killed and another was beaten into unconsciousness here today when Patrolman John Laird caught him in the act of holding up a station attendant. Police say that the two men had staged three robberies within an hour and a half.

The dead man was Oley McLean,
30, who has a police record. George Hummell, 23, was beaten into insensibility when he tried to escape.

The cleverest racketeer we know of is the baby who blackmail everybody into doing what he wants, by howling if they don't.—The San Bernardino Sun.

...men of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition

ALL America welcomes you home after your two-year trek into the vast wastes of the frozen Antarctic. And we congratulate you, every one, for your contributions to science . . . for your discoveries destined to be so far-reaching in effect as to be almost beyond human belief.

As an example of modern, scientific research your expedition has been superb. Past all barriers . . . surmounting all handicaps . . . you have, in a typically American manner, attained the magnificent goal you set for yourselves.

America hails you!

And it is with pride that we point to the modest part which Bokar Coffee has played in this thrilling drama. For two and one-half tons of Bokar went along to Little America with the Byrd Antarctic Expedition. And when the historic flight was made over the South Pole a thermos bottle of hot Bokar Coffee was carried in the plane.

FISHER BROTHERS

ANNOUNCE a general PRICE REDUCTION sale

The Race is to the Swift. Nothing in America can stand still. No man or thing or store can stand in the way of progress. Every business must listen to and catch the spirit of the coming years.

This modern age demands a store of youthful ideas — today the tempo of the "Times" calls for a daring adjustment to the period. With a swiftness that is typical of FISHER BROTHERS eagerness to serve you well... FISHER'S ANNOUNCE PRICE REDUCTIONS.

Almost the entire FISHER BROTHERS stock will be sold off regardless of cost, to make way for the coming of the FINER but lower priced FISHER BROTHERS STORE.

This important sale will be of such proportions that it will cast a general effect on all retail prices in this city and state.

At the close of the war when the rest of the world was trying to sell the public $5 to $25 Shirts, FISHER'S were first to establish the new favored price of $1.95.

Three years ago when most women paid $1.95 for Hosiery FISHER'S won fame and favor with the $1.29 "Special" Stockings.

Last year the usual price for man's Felt Hat was $5. FISHER'S then quickly made famous our $3.45 Hats. We could go on and on.

We have broken all the rules of the game in this sale, all the rules except the fundamental of good merchandising which is TO BE PROGRESSIVE.

Cameron Family Reunion.

The 24th annual reunion of the Cameron family was held on Wednesday at the Liberty Grange hall, with nearly 100 members of the family present. After the dinner hour the business meeting was held and the following officers were elected to serve for the coming year: President, D. L. Cameron; vice president, Willard Cameron; secretary, Curtin Cameron; treasurer, William Noggle. Remarks were then made by Rev. C. J. Baker, C. V. Alley, A. F. Cameron and Mrs. C. J. Baker. Miss Clara Cameron, chairman of entertainment, then took charge and the following program was presented:

Song—Aud Lang Syne.
Solo—Jean Cameron.
Recitation—Miriam Thomas.
Music—Raymond and Viola Munneil.
Solo—Thayer Cameron.
Song—Anita Clutter, "Little Dove."
Duet—Ruth and Gladys Noggle.
Piano Solo—Mrs. Evelyn Cameron.
Stunts—Cherest Hunt.
Recitation—Ernest Cameron.
Song—Anita Clutter, "Little Boy Blue."
Music—Marjorie Thomas.
Music—Mary DeArment.
Duet—Thelma and Beryl Cameron.
Recitation—Anita Clutter.
Song—God Be With You Till We Meet Again.

Guests were present from Struthers, O. Millvale, Pa., Mt. Jackson and New Castle. The next reunion will take place at the same place, the third Wednesday of June, 1931.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Raymond McCartney, Sheridan avenue, was a charming hostess Thursday evening when she entertained a group of friends in honor of Mrs. Enid McNutt, the occasion being her birthday.

Four tables of cards were in play during the evening and high score awards were won by Mrs. Prosper Adams, Mrs. William Anderson, Marjory Watkins and Mrs. Leroy Johnson. The honor guest was the recipient of some lovely gifts and the hostess served a most delicious repast at a late hour. She was assisted by Mrs. W. L. McCartney and Mrs. William Anderson.

Mrs. LeRoy Johnston of Ellwood City was an out of town guest.

Iona Kensington

Members of the Iona Kensington met with Mrs. Wm. Pregoner on E. Washington street Thursday, with bingo forming the chief pastime. Prizes for the entertainment were awarded to Mrs. Edward Carr and Mrs. L. H. Gormley.

At a selected hour, the guests were invited into the dining room where they were served a dainty lunch by the hostess. The table was artistically decorated in pink and white tones with a large bowl of pink and white peonies gracing the table center. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Darrimble.

On July 10 the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Frank Glasgow on Lowery street.

Pupils Recital

The annual violin recital by pupils of Mrs. Fred S. Emery was given Thursday evening at her studio, East Washington street, and was a most interesting affair to friends and those participating in the recital. Every number was finely performed and well chosen.

The boys and girls presenting them were Kathryn Bittner, Emery Back, James Bishop, Albert Bodendorfer, James Bechtol, Bett Down, Leaneore Emery, Josephine Diano, Betty Lathrop, Thomas Greer, Margaretta Hess.

Walter Wallace, Virginia McKee and George Lang.

At the piano was Miss Leta John, and Mrs. Helen Slater Greer.

Good Time Club.

Plans for a picnic dinner to be held on Thursday, June 26, at Rock Springs were made by the Good Time club members when they met last evening at the home of Mrs. Grace Hoch on Wilmington avenue for their regular meeting. Card tables formed the chief diversion of the social period, prizes being won by Mrs. Cora Belle Allen and Mrs. Florence Hoch. Special music was furnished by Oliver Hoch throughout the evening, which proved quite entertaining.

Toward the close of the evening the hostess, having as aides Mrs. Florence Hoch and Mrs. Ray Sharpe, served a tempting lunch at the card tables, each guest place being marked with a favor.

Evening Bridge.

As a courtesy to Mrs. Jane Cochran Preston of Los Angeles, Cal., Miss Eva Bricker of East Washington street entertained a few guests in her home at an evening bridge Wednesday.

Guests were all former school friends and they had not seen Mrs. Preston for ten years. Bridge was the pastime. At a seasonable hour delicious refreshments were served.

Guests were Mrs. Vernett Dufford, Mrs. William Joyce, Mrs. Adam Thompson, Miss Ethel Weaver and the honor guest, Mrs. Preston.

O. D. 500 Club.

Mrs. James Kerr charmingly entertained associates of the O. D. 500 club Wednesday evening in her home on DuShane street. During the course of entertainment, paper hats of many colors and other novel favors were given each guest, adding much to the enjoyment of the gathering. At a late hour a lunch was served by the hostess at card tables being prettily decorated in the season's tones with bouquets of cut flowers blending in.

Wednesday, June 25, the club will meet with Mrs. Russell Crane on Harrison street.

Beth Shalom Party.

Members of the Beth Shalom Sisterhood entertained the members and friends in a delightful manner Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Jacob Silverman, East Wallace avenue. The spacious lawn was strung with electric lights in various shades, the card tables were set up and bridge was indulged in during the evening hours, with lovely prizes being awarded the holders of high score.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

Amerita Club

The Amerita Club members were royally entertained at the home of Mrs. Anthony Williams on East Reynolds street Thursday with a business session opening the meeting. A social hour followed and was later enjoyed with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Victor Colicchio, which is a regular event of the members. At the close, a tempting lunch was served by the hostess at a decorative table.

In two weeks, the club will meet with Mrs. Mario Frabotta on West Grant street.

J. G. A. Club.

The J. G. A. club members met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Virginia Allen on Lathrop street, with Mrs. Andrew Fair as a special guest. Fancywork, music and chat passed the social hours away, with a dainty lunch being served by the hostess at the close of the meeting, assisted by Mrs. Cora Belle Allen, her sister-in-law. Pastel tones were used in the table appointments.

In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Cora Bell Allen on Monroe street.

A. L. C. 500 Club.

Members of the A. L. C. 500 club met at the home of Mrs. James Egan on Croton avenue Wednesday evening for their usual social time. Prizes for cards were awarded to Mrs. Hugh Daly and Mrs. Paul Thornton. At the close of play, the hostess served a delicious lunch at the small tables prettily arranged, assisted by her daughter Kathryn.

In two weeks the club will receive the hospitality of Mrs. Dan Sullivan, Crescent avenue.

F. A. 1926 Bridge Club.

The F. A. 1926 Bridge club gathered at the home of Mrs. H. L. Dean on the Harlansburg road Wednesday when she entertained at a nicely appointed 1 o'clock luncheon. The house was artistically decorated with roses and green foliage. A period of cards was later enjoyed with lovely prizes being awarded to Mrs. C. L. McMillen and Mrs. C. H. McMillen. The date of the next meeting has not been definitely decided as yet.

A. G. P. Club.

Members of the A. G. P. Club enjoyed a 500 party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hartman on Croton avenue, three tables being in play. Mrs. E. J. Edmunds was awarded the prize for holding honors. The house was elaborately decorated throughout, with Spring flowers with pastel tones being tastefully carried out in the menu served at a seasonable hour.

Local Girl Will Go To Sorority Meet At Del Monte, Cal.

Miss Lenore White, Delaware Avenue, To Attend Alpha Chi Omega Sessions

Miss Lenore White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. White of Delaware avenue, will leave Sunday evening for Del Monte, Cal., where she will attend the national convention of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority from June 27 to July 3. Miss White attends Allegheny college.

Accompanying Miss White on the trip will be other Allegheny girls, including Miss Helen McBride, of Warren, Ohio, formerly of this city.

Following the convention Miss White and Miss McBride will go to Los Angeles, where they will remain until late in August.

Warren Potters Will Be Guests

Taylor Company Of Warren To Send Delegation Here On Saturday

Seventy-five or more people are expected from Warren, O. Saturday afternoon, June 21, when the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Company entertains the Halsey W. Taylor Company of Warren. A ball game between teams representing the two plants, a visit through the plant and a buffet lunch in the evening will feature the program of the afternoon.

The Universal Sanitary now has its own band and the band will be out for the game. Visitors interested in seeing this highly modern plant are invited to be present Saturday afternoon. While there are many who do not realize it, some of the best sanitary ware in the United States is turned out at the plant of the Universal Sanitary, and with recent improvements the company is now at the highest point of efficiency since its organization.

Camp Meetings Attract Throng

Meetings Being Held In Tent At Castle Hill Mission Are Crowded Each Night

The camp meetings at the Castle Hill Mission property are becoming most interesting and a number of persons have asked for prayer, some for healing and some true conversions have been made.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the river near the new bridge on Croton avenue there will be immersion services held.

L. S. Schmidt, the evangelist superintendent, is delivering some soul searching messages each evening at the tent meetings and these services will continue each day as long as the people are interested in coming and saving their souls.

To Hold Meetings In Pulaski Tent

The Christ's Ambassadors of the Pentecostal Assembly are holding a two weeks tent meeting beginning this Sunday afternoon in Pulaski. The tent was pitched last night and they are busy getting it ready for the opening service Sunday afternoon at 2:30 Eastern Standard Time. It is pitched on a brow of a hill at the entrance of town and it is expected that all of the services will be well attended. The young people are being led in these services by the pastor and his wife. The meetings will be held each evening, except Monday and Saturday, at 7:30 Eastern Standard Time.

Caliphs To Have Ladies' Night

Caliphs of Bagdad and their wives will be out tonight for what is expected to be the biggest evening's entertainment in the history of this ancient order. Ladies' night will be observed in the Cathedral and beginning at nine o'clock golf time, the evening will be given over to merriment.

A program has been arranged, an orchestra will play for dancing, prizes will be given away and a lunch served. All of which sounds like an attractive evening for any order.

In Religious and Fraternal Circles

Missionary To Meet.
Members of the Highland U. P. Missionary society will meet this evening at the home of the Misses Butz, 419 East Moody avenue, for the regular monthly meeting.

FAKE AGENT GETS SUMS OF MONEY
Report has been made to the police of the fact that a man claiming to be an agent and a resident of Butler had gone into two East Side service stations and secured certain sums of money under the pretense that he wanted to make a purchase and would return. The police are investigating.

He is described as being about 24 or 25 years of age, weighing about 180 pounds, about five feet 10 inches in height, wearing a light colored suit and having a red face, small features and a likeable disposition.
Scotland will revive flax growing.

Send Programs To Sanitary Experts

HARRISBURG, June 20—Programs of the Pennsylvania Waterworks Operators Association and the Pennsylvania Sewage Works Association joint conference have been mailed to the members of the association. The conference will be held at State College on June 24 to 27. These associations have been endorsed by the State Department of Health, and co-operate with engineers and others who are interested in the problems of water supply and sewage disposal. Among other well-known engineers, the meetings will be addressed by J. W. Ellms, Cleveland, Ohio, and Colonel George A. John, son of New York City, both of whom are nationally known engineers in the waterworks field.

Complains Of Lot Covered By Weeds

Complaint today was registered by a Norwood avenue property owner concerning weeds and briar on a vacant lot next to his property which he claims is depreciated by the ugly sight and asked council to alleviate the situation.
Council requested the property owner to secure a physician to make an examination as to whether or not the weeds are obnoxious. Under the law persons are not allowed to let obnoxious weeds grow.

Local Pastor Back From Eastern Trip

Preaches In Two Different Churches While In Philadelphia And Reading
Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Shirer of Walnut street, the former pastor of the Pentacostal Assembly in this city, have returned home from eastern missions, where they spent several days in the interest of missions, in which they are deeply interested, due to the fact that they were located for many years in the mission field of the Sudan, Africa, and only recently returned to this country from their work there.

While in Philadelphia Rev. Shirer spoke at the Highway Tabernacle, Nineteenth and Green streets. At the morning service he spoke on foreign missions and in the evening conducted an evangelistic service. The offerings of the day were for foreign missions and the amount raised was $1,500.
En route home Rev. and Mrs. Shirer, who were accompanied by Mrs. Carrie Fink Swanson of Garfield avenue, stopped over at Reading, Pa., where Mrs. Shirer addressed a meeting in the Pentacostal Assembly at that place on missions, while Rev. Shirer conducted an evangelistic service.
A total of 16,500 rural consolidated school are operating 42,000 motor buses, according to a survey of the California Automobile association.

RHEUMATISM AIDED AFTER SUFFERING MANY YEARS

Ten Herbs Made Big Change In Health; High Praise For New Medicine.

The new and wonderful medicine, Ten Herbs, has been credited with helping thousands who suffered from disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. The remarkable products of ten of nature's best healing herbs, added to many other health giving ingredients have effective results on the vital organs which often need cleansing and regulating. The medicine also acts as a tonic to the system.

"I give all the credit to Ten Herbs for my relief," said Mrs. Mary Provost, Main St., Spencer, Mass. (near Worcester). "For several years I have suffered with rheumatism. I had it in my arms and legs. For the last eighteen months my left leg was so sore and swollen that I had to wear a rubber stocking and I could not get shoes on my feet. Eventually my right arm became useless and I had to have help to dress myself.

"During all these years I had tried so many different things for relief that I felt nothing would ever help. Friends told me to try Ten Herbs and within two months I looked and felt like another person after I had only taken three bottles. My arms and legs began to have feeling and new life came over my whole system. That was about three months ago and to this day none of my old miseries have returned. I give all the credit to Ten Herbs and I am sure it has given me lasting relief. I strongly endorse Ten Herbs to everyone."

Ten Herbs is being introduced at Eckard's of New Castle, Inc., 30 E. Washington St., this city, and is sold at all drug and medicine stores throughout this entire section.

ROAMING With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things around New Castle

If you like pastorals, you can see them in the original these evenings out most any of the roads that lead through the country. The Enon Valley road offers some pretty scenes, and at sundown you can look out over the fields and almost expect to hear the Angels.

It's an old statement that there is art in everything. Road building, portrait painting or cultivating corn, and there is one artist out along the road nearly into Enon who has the soul of an artist. The field of corn has just been cultivated, and customers the symmetric lines, the carefulness with which the work has been done and the effect of the field as a whole is something that slows you for a moment as you pass. Don't know whose field it is, but it sets partly on a hillside and to my mind is one of the nicest looking fields of corn in the county.

Which reminds me that if a certain row of corn isn't up by this afternoon or tomorrow morning, there's going to be a congressional investigation over the matter. With all the rain and sun we've had in the past week it certainly should be on its way up.

The folks out Enon Valley way are feeling good over the progress of their new road to Galilee. By the Fourth of July it will be ready for use, although the approach to the bridge cannot be finished until next summer. The answer is that there is a fill there and the fill has to settle before they can cement over it.

Happened to be on the Ellwood road at 5:15 last night and got into the opening parade at the Cascade park bridge. And that's one improvement that calls for three cheers or something. After bumping around that detour for a year or so the new road seems like a carpet.

The approach to the new bridge curves around like a scenic railway and you get a pretty picture of the park. There will be a guard rail fence along each side, no doubt, but in the meantime let's hope nobody slides off into the Big run.

Out in Bessemer the folks are that way about the Fourth of July. Have a celebration planned that will extend from dawn until dark, with something to fill every minute. If this department has any influence with the weather man they will have plenty of nice weather for it, for Bessemer has a crowd of boosters over there that deserve the breaks.

The celebration will be under the direction of the Bessemer Boosters club and you can lay your dime on the line that everybody in the borough will be in on it. When they do things in Bessemer they do them all together which seems to me to be an example for all the rest of us.

Burgess Alf Eales has the machinery of law and order running without any creaking over there. Folks don't commit much crime for it isn't popular with the rest of the borough. The

Veterans Willing To Cut Down Weeds

Red Cross Can Furnish Men To Clear Off Weeds On Vacant Lots Of City

Secretary Orville Potter of the Lawrence county chapter, American Red Cross, stated today that he had a number of jobless veterans on his list, who have the necessary tools to cut weeds and high grass on vacant lots about the city.

Weeds have grown more than waist high on practically every vacant lot in New Castle, which has not been kept up. These weeds should be cut now to prevent attacks of hay fever among those subject to this affliction and to remove the unsightliness of these spots.

New Castle residents desiring the services of these unemployed veterans are requested to call Mr. Potter at 2697.

Clean-Up Of Corn Borer Was Success Officials Assert

Infested Areas In Crawford And Erie Counties Cleaned Up

HARRISBURG, June 20—The European corn borer clean-up in Crawford and Erie counties this spring was successful, according to R. H. Bell, director, bureau of plant industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. The requirements for complete clean-up all corn remnants about the farm were followed out carefully by most farmers. The clean-up work which the Commonwealth had to do was largely on farms owned by persons living out of the State.

Due to the decrease in infestation, only two counties were included in the area of enforced clean-up this year. Last year, the clean-up work was required in all or portions of four counties.

Pennsylvania farmers are ahead of growers in neighboring states in corn borer control efforts, according to entomologists who have observed conditions throughout the infested area. Much commercial loss occurred in one county in a neighboring state in 1929 which emphasizes the seriousness of this introduced corn pest, it was said.

The department proposes to make a field-to-field survey of the entire infested district in Pennsylvania this summer for the purpose of determining the rate of infestation and thereby be in position to give farmers definite information as to the control requirements. Eighteen men will be employed in this survey.

Leave Saturday For Ann Arbor

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Heess Will Witness Graduation Of Their Son, Judson B. Heess

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Heess of No. 1 East Wallace avenue, will leave Saturday for Ann Arbor, Michigan, where they will witness the graduation exercises of the University of Michigan, in which their son, Judson B. Heess will participate. The latter will graduate from the Dental College of the University of Michigan, where he has been very prominent and has attained unusual high standards in his work in that institution.

He is president of his class, an unusual honor for a student in the university, not a resident of Michigan and a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, also of the Delta Sigma Delta, an honorary fraternity. Dr. Heess will return here with his parents following the graduation for a few days vacation, after which he will go to Detroit, where he has secured a fine position with one of the leading dentists of that city, who has extensive offices in the General Motor building. There were six members of Dr. Heess's class applied for this appointment and he was the successful applicant, indicating his high standing in the scholastic records of the class.

Business Good At Bessemer Plant

Large Volume Of Cement Is Being Shipped From Plant

Business in Bessemer is good at the present time insofar as the manufacture of cement is concerned. During the past week the Bessemer Limestone and Cement company has been shipping an average of 12,000 barrels of cement a day, an amount equal to about fifty cars.

Much of the cement is being trucked away to jobs now in progress in other cities. Among them is Youngstown, O., where one concern alone keeps a fleet of trucks busy all day long hauling cement by truck from Bessemer over to Youngstown.

Woman, 60, Boy, Six, Bitten By Stray Dogs

Mrs. Ramsey was taken to South Side unit of Youngstown hospital for treatment and the Rogers boy was treated at St. Elizabeth's hospital.

Reeves Submits Rubbish Ordinance

Violators Of City Law Can Be Put To Work On City Dumps

Persons who dump rubbish, junk and other waste material contrary to a new ordinance, introduced before city council today, can be sentenced upon conviction to "hard labor on the city dumps".

This became known when the ordinance was introduced by Councilman Reeves. Solicitor White put the "teeth" in the measure so that the law will not be broken.

According to the bill, rubbish, junk and other waste material can be dumped at places to be designated by council and between 7 a. m. and 6 p. m. only.

A fine as high as $300 can be levied and the person can be sentenced to 30 days in jail or "hard labor on the city dumps".

GIRL SCOUTS

REGISTER FOR CAMP Scout Director Nance Push asks that girls register for camp just as soon as they can. Camp will be held for two weeks, August 5 to 19, at Fred Rentz Y. M. C. A. camp grounds.

WILL LEAVE IN WEEK Local Girl Scouts planning to attend the national camp at Briar Cliff Manor, N. Y., will leave on the 26th of this month. The scout director and several leaders will attend.

On July 1 Mrs. Harry Wetlich, leader of the St. Mary's troop; Miss Frances Myers, leader of the Thaddeus Stevens troop, will return home from Camp Pine Grove at Pine Grove Furnace, another national camp.

College Boasts A King, A Real One, On Faculty; He's A Part-Time Ruler

TAN B. STROUGHTON HOLBOURN

By GEORGE SMEDAL Central Press Correspondent NORTHFIELD, Minn., June 20.—Carleton college is the only institution of higher learning in the world which can boast of a king on its faculty.

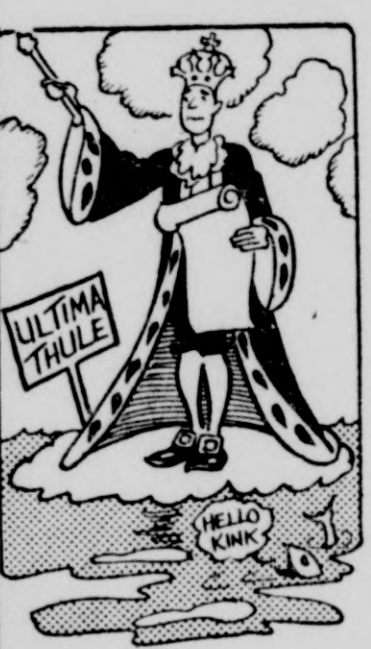

He is Professor Ian B. Stroughton Holbourn, teacher of Greek and art, and King of Ultima Thule. When the professor isn't teaching art or Greek here at Northfield, he is the omnipotent ruler, laird of a Scottish island.

Ultima Thule is an island north of Scotland, and boasts of a population of 150 souls. These are fishermen and hardy toilers of the land. On the island, which is 16 miles southwest of the Shetland mainland, are approximately 26 small farms, each having 15 to 20 acres each.

Inherited the Island Professor Holbourn came into possession of the island by inheritance and he is its absolute lord. The people making their homes there are not subjects to the king of England and parliament never has questioned authority over the hardy Scotchmen.

On Ultima Thule cliffs rise in majestic splendor to as high as 1,500 feet from the boiling tides which wash the rockbound shores. Approximately five square miles comprise the kingdom.

"Ultima Thule is the northernmost point of the classical world," says

A KING FOR SIX MONTHS OUT OF THE YEAR AND DURING THE OTHER SIX MONTHS HOLBOURN IS A PROFESSOR OF GREEK AND ART

King Holbourn, adding that it was named by the famous Roman historian Tacitus. It was discovered by Agricola, one of the Roman conquerors of Britain, in 300 A. D., but settlement did not begin before the eighth century.

Then He Kings It When the emperor is not in Northfield he usually will be found among his subjects on the distant island. Holbourn has had many exciting experiences. He has been shipwrecked three times. He was on the Lusitania when it went down, and with it went his labors of 17 years—the manuscript of his book, "The Philosophy of the Beautiful."

Professor Holbourn founded the department of art at Carleton. How popular his classes are is attested by the fact that out of 800 students enrolled in the college, one-fourth of them are studying art under him.

Holbourn is known as a lecturer and reader of poetry. He has given more than 1,000 lectures in this country, besides hundreds of others in Germany, England, Switzerland, Austria, Canada and France.

Board Of Fair Directors Meet Novel Features Will Be Presented At The 1930 New Castle Fair

Board of directors of the New Castle Fair met in the office of the Fair Association, S. Croton avenue, Thursday evening. Business details in regard to the 1930 fair were discussed. Included among those present were John S. Crowl, secretary of speed; T. J. McCullough, vice president; W. B. Rodgers, secretary; Florence W. Dent, assistant secretary; Robert B. Stoner, James E. Ellis, Thomas Mc-

Nees, J. A. Book, J. L. Burton, A. E. McCleary, and W. H. Atkinson. Plans for the fair are progressing rapidly and many novel features will mark this year's fair, which will take place on the 5th, 6th and 7th days of August. There will be some interesting free acts, in addition to the livestock show, special contests and midway races.

Breakfast Is Held. Members of the G. M. T. club held a breakfast at Cascade Park Thursday morning, which was attended by ten members of the club. The hours following the breakfast were spent in a social manner.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Withers of Gardfield avenue have returned from Youngstown, O., where they attended the wedding of Miss Lillian Matias to Nathan N. Ginsberg of New Castle. The wedding ceremony was performed at Anstie Emeth Temple.

Peter's Adventures

MRS MOSQUITO GETS BUSY
"When are you going to start to lay your eggs, Wary-Wing?" demanded Peter, suddenly, so suddenly that Wary-Wing almost lost his balance.
"Well, well, I never thought to be reminded of my duty as a mosquito by a Two-Legs!" Except that he had never seen a mosquito smile, Peter could have sworn Wary-Wing did so. "I have been so upset by poor sister's misfortune that I have let time run away from me. I am ashamed of myself when I think of all I might have accomplished. No use of thinking about what is past and done with, though. Only thing for me to do is to get busy now! Since I didn't lay my eggs this morning before sun was up, I must lay them before another dawn—never can tell what will happen to a mosquito in twenty-four hours. If I were to meet with an accident before those eggs were laid, then there would be a lot of little mosquitoes who would be denied their chance in life."
"Hey, Wary-Wing, where are you going?" shrieked Brown Beetle, as without warning that lady mosquito took to her wings.
"Into the pool," born on the breeze back floated Wary-Wing's answer. "I stay as near shore as I can. I wish me luck that none of the pool people eat me."
"Here's to your good health and happiness!" cried Peter and Brown Beetle, in chorus, and the boy added: "Come back as soon as you can. I want to talk longer with you!"
"Afraid you've seen the last of me today!" replied Wary-Wing, quickly. "After the eggs are laid I shall have to dance—couldn't get through a sunny day without exercise. Besides, keep my wings in order. Besides, my sisters in the meadow will begin."

Find Skeleton Of Prehistoric Animal

BERKELEY, Cal., June 20—First complete description of a hyena-like animal which roamed the hills of Texas 10,000,000 years ago has been published by the Paleontology department of the University of California.
The fossil bones were found on the Cleve-Coffee ranch in Hemphill county, Texas, in one of the many fossil quarries of that region.
According to Professor W. D. Matthei, chairman of the department of paleontology and R. A. Stirton, curator of the vertebrate collection, authors of the report, the animal was much like the modern wolves in skeleton except for the short, thick neck and short limbs.
The habits of the animal appear to have been much like those of the hyena of today, the report said.

Nazarenes Will Hear Workers

WALKS FLOOR IN PAIN Resinol Completely Heals Itching Disorder

"A while ago my leg got red, swollen, and itched terribly. Then it broke out in several places and the pain was intense. I was told varicose veins caused the trouble and I used all kinds of treatments without success. I walked the floor at night in pain. A friend told me he used Resinol Ointment, so I tried it. In two hours I had relief and after using two and one-half large jars, the leg was completely healed." (Signed) Ernest Schmidt, Babylon, N. Y.

DIETITIANS have searched for years to find a perfect food material which would furnish all the elements required for our nourishment. To date their efforts have been in vain. Man must have a variety of food, as it is only through the right variety we obtain a proper degree of nutrition. To practically every person, bread is a pleasing and palatable food, of which he never tires—it combines perfectly with every other food.

Bread occupies an important place in the diet of the normal individual, and properly baked bread made with milk is a wholesome, nutritious and inexpensive food.

Snake Conquers Owl In Air Battle

(International News Service)
RED BLUFF, Cal., June 20.—A battle in the air between a snake and an owl was witnessed by D. B. Lyons, Tehama County cattleman.
While driving along the highway, Lyons noticed the owl flying parallel to the road and about level with the top of his automobile.

In the bird's claws was a wriggling and twisting snake.
The weight of the reptile pulled the bird lower and lower until it came level with the top of a fence. The snake suddenly coiled itself around the wire and pulled free.
The owl returned and pecked at the snake for several minutes in an effort to release it but was finally forced to abandon the task.
The snake rested a while, and then disengaged itself, dropped to the ground and crawled away.

"The Power Of His Resurrection"

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."—Matthew 28:19.

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL.
The final chapter of Matthew's gospel is the great power chapter. In fact, it reveals the dynamic which has been, and must continue to be, the impelling and motivating force of Christianity through the ceaseless ages. This dynamic is what Paul calls "the power of His resurrection."
The four great words which trace the argument through Matthew's account of our Lord's life are "Preparation" (1:1 to 4:16), "Preaching" (4:17 to 16:20), "Passion" (16:21 to 27:66) and "Power" (28:1-20). This power is first of all the power of Christ's resurrection. His power over sin and Satan, over death and the grave, as manifested by His own resurrection from the dead on the third day as He himself prophesied. He rose from the dead "because it was not possible that He should be holden of it." His power transcended all the powers of death, and by His unquenchable life "death is swallowed up in victory." He needed no earthquake or angel to let him out of the tomb; these were granted to let the disciples into the empty tomb.

It is interesting to note how the risen Lord released His resurrection power to give peace, comfort and strength to His disciples as needed. His first appearance was to comfort the broken heart of Mary Magdalene, a great sinner saved by a more abounding grace, then to the other women as they returned from the tomb to give them a message of hope for the disciples whom He still calls "my brethren"; then to Peter, to assure him of forgiveness of his base sin of denial; then to the two disciples in the way to open their eyes to their own scriptures and warm their hearts by the living words, then to the disciples to speak "Peace" to their company, then to Thomas to turn his doubt into the faith that first called him "my Lord and my God," then to seven disciples by the sea to recall them from their fishing to the apostolate, and to confirm the love of the denier; then to the disciples and above 500 brethren on a mountain in Galilee to commission them for world evangelization by His power.

Power for World Conquest

Not only has Christ within himself the springs of power, but He makes this power of His resurrection available to His disciples down through the ages. "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the ages." As the high tension wires accompany the electric railway, miles and miles from the power house, bearing the current which will be needed all along the way, and as this current is transformed and poured into the power lines every seven to ten miles to maintain the necessary voltage to drive the trains along their way to the end of the line, so Christ promises to accompany his disciples through the ages to the end of time making available to them His limitless power for the work of world evangelization.

(The International Uniform Lesson for June 22 is Matt. 28:1-10, 16-20, the subject being, "The Risen Lord and the Great Commission," and the Golden Text, "Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all nations." Matt. 28:19.)

(The suggested daily Bible readings for next week's study are: Monday, Matt. 16:21-28; Tuesday, Matt. 18:21-27; Wednesday, Matt. 19:16-22; Thursday, Matt. 21:1-11; Friday, Matt. 25:1-13; Saturday, Matt. 28:16-20; Sunday, Isa. 2:2-4.)

In a hostess it's Graciousness

in a cigarette it's Taste

THE SUCCESS OF A HOSTESS depends upon her ability to make others feel at home; that of a cigarette, upon better taste.

HOW ELSE EXPLAIN Chesterfield's constant gains, its ever-mounting popularity with smokers everywhere?

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE for the delicate mildness and rich aroma that belong to Chesterfield, nor for Chesterfield's unique blend and cross-blend. "In a cigarette it's TASTE!" Yes, and in a Chesterfield, it's... "TASTE above everything".

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield cigarettes are of finer quality and hence of better taste than in any other cigarette at the price. LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Pennsylvania Is Well Represented At 4-H Encampment

Four Representatives Attending National Meeting In Washington, D. C.

By ARTHUR C. WIMER

(Special Washington Correspondent)

Of The New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—

Pennsylvania has four representatives at the fourth national 4-H club encampment here this week where 125 rural young men and women from all parts of the country are becoming better acquainted with their government and are spreading farm information by exchanging views.

Thirty-nine states sent delegations to the encampment this year, the Keystone State sending two boys and two girls accompanied by a member of the State extension staff.

The young ladies sent to Washington from Pennsylvania for outstanding work in farm activities are Miss Madelon Stitt of the Juniata county 4-H club and Miss Edna Hower of the Northampton county club.

The young men representing the Keystone State in the camp are Herbert K. Anders of Montgomery county and Harry L. Smith of the Union county 4-H organization.

Correct this sentence: "Darling, I'm so glad your new secretary has a pretty face and a sweet disposition. You'll do much better work in pleasant surroundings."

Naturalization Fees Too High

Senator Walsh Of Massachusetts Feels Aliens Are Being Held Up By Government

Cites Pathetic Cases Of Poor Working People Who Pay High Price For Rights

(By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent of The New Castle News.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—Naturalization fees in this country are "outrageous and a scandal," believes Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts, regarded as one of the immigration experts of the Senate.

"I desire to have the Senate go on record as to whether or not it proposes to continue the financial hold-up of aliens seeking to be naturalized," says Senator Walsh.

"The fees which are charged these poor people are outrageous and a scandal. That men and women who have families and who desire to become American citizens should have to pay the fees now charged, as I say is a scandal and a reflection upon our institutions."

"Those who are conducting Americanization schools in this country have repeatedly brought to my attention pathetic cases of women, with children, working in factories or in sweatshops who are obliged to pay $25 in order to be naturalized and to become American citizens."

The Senators wishes to have a roll call in the Senate in order to see how many Senators "desire to continue this extortion upon poor, unfortunate aliens who are clamoring to become American citizens."

Appreciative Of Convention Here

Commander Of Pittsburgh Post
Writes Concerning G. A.
R. Convention

John Nixon, commander, Post 88, G. A. R., Pittsburgh, has written a letter to the Mayor and citizens in which he says the Abe Patterson post, 88, G. A. R., adopted a resolution thanking the mayor and citizens for the interest shown in the annual encampment here and the generous hospitality extended.

The letter follows:
To The Mayor and Citizens of New Castle, Pennsylvania.

Greeting:
Abe Patterson Post 88, Grand Army of the Republic, North Side Pittsburgh, Department of Pennsylvania, at its meeting today adopted the following resolution, viz:

We the members of Abe Patterson Post 88, Grand Army of the Republic extend to the Mayor and the People of the City of New Castle our thanks and hereby voice our appreciation for the efforts put forth and the kindly interest shown by all on the occasion of 64th Annual Encampment of the Pennsylvania Department Grand Army of the Republic held in your city June 10 to 14. The generous hospitality extended as well as the arrangements for our entertainment and welfare have never been surpassed anywhere.

We take this opportunity to express to you our sincere thanks and best wishes for your City and its kindly people.

Yours very sincerely,

H. W. REBELE,

JOHN NIXON,

Old War Wounds Cause Vets' Death

(International News Service)
LONDON, June 20.—Death by "enemy action" was the unusual verdict recorded at an inquest here recently upon William Evans, ex-soldier.

The doctor stated that death was due to gun-shot wounds that Evans received twelve years ago during the world war.

Snake Oil

Will Positively Relieve Pain in a Few Minutes
Try it right now for Muscular Rheumatic Pains, Neuralgia, Lumbago, sore stiff and swollen joints, pain in the back and limbs, etc. After one application pain usually disappears as if by magic.

A new remedy used externally for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Influenza, Sore Throat and Bronchitis.
This oil is conceded to be the most penetrating ointment known. Its prompt and immediate effect in relieving pain is due to the fact that it penetrates to the affected parts at once. As an illustration, pour ten drops on the "instep" of sole leather and it will penetrate this substance through and through in a few minutes.

Refuse imitations. Nothing like it for relief.

THE QUESTION BOX

Answers to questions of information and fact can be obtained by writing to Central Press Bureau, P. O. Box 126, Washington, D. C., and enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope. No answers will be given to marital, medical or legal questions.

How did the abbreviations of Mr. Mrs. and Miss originate?

Mr. was originally the abbreviation of master in the 16th century in England. Mister is merely a render of the pronunciation of the abbreviation. It was used as the prefix for anyone below the rank of knight. Mrs. is an abbreviation for mistress, originally one who had care or authority over servants. Miss is derived from the same word.

How does the number of deaths per mile traveled compare between automobiles and airplanes?

The department of commerce estimates that during 1928 civilian airplanes flew approximately 70,472,000 miles and were responsible for 368 lives lost and 672 people injured. That figures about one life for every 191,500 miles traveled. The American Automobile association estimates that all the autos in the country traveled about 143,115,477,750 miles in 1928 and the death rate was 23,000 and 700,000 injuries. This, however, boils down to one death for every 6,222,412 miles traveled. In other words it looks as though the ground were still the safest place to be.

What city is considered the center of broadcasting?

New York claims that distinction, but Chicago rapidly is coming to the fore.

How did the expression "to mend one's fences" originate?

John Sherman had a fine tract of land near Mansfield, his Ohio home. On one occasion he went from Washington to Ohio on a mission that was chiefly political, and jokingly remarked to a friend that he had come to look after his fences. The phrase was immediately adopted into the political literature of the country, and was commonly applied to a congressman or senator who might visit his home to promote his chances for re-election.

Why is Friday chosen as a day of assembly by Mohammedans?

The observance of Friday as the Moslem day of assembly, corresponding in some respects to the Christian Sabbath, originated in the Mohammedan revelations. According to the instructions of the prophet, Friday was the day Adam was created, the day on which he entered Paradise, was expelled therefrom, the day of his repentance, the day of his death, and it is to be the day of his resurrection.

The Parent Problem

by GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.

Make Child's Welfare First Consideration, Not What People Say

There will be a goodly number of sorry children and of disappointed parents when the final grades come home at the close of the school year. Some children will be beaten and some driven into sobs, and many will be treated for a long while as if they had committed some awful crime and had disgraced their family.

We should remember that it wasn't what the child did or did not do in the last few weeks that determined his grades. If he got poor grades or failed, the causes were at work for months, perhaps years. It was the child's study habits and his progress day by day throughout the year which really counted, and his grades in June are only a product of these factors.

Maybe the child has done about as well as he could do. Some are so made as to be slow learners. Granted that he had average or even superior ability. Even then it will do no good to punish, scold and shame him for his bad grades, nor to tug at his heartstrings. So to treat him will merely make him very unhappy, make him dread his school next fall and lose regard for you. The damage has been done. Forget the past. The only hope now is in the future. Don't ask him why he does no better. Don't give him long lectures on how he is wasting his time and how sorry he is going to be some day. To do so is childish, merely making you feel better and him worse. Don't talk about his failures before others. Keep others from exhorting him. Subject him to no emotional disturbances. He already has too many worries. Sometimes you may be fooled about his apparent light-heartedness. The chances are he is seeming so to provide a kind of smoke screen back of which he can hide and reduce your emotional onslaughts.

When he tells about a successful recitation, brings home a good paper, or a term report with one or two good grades on it, praise him for the good ones; say nothing about the bad ones.

Our biggest trouble is our selfish pride. We are more concerned about what our friends may think of our child's future than we are about the future of the child.

New Nurses Home Will Be Opened

Formal Opening Of New Building At Mercer Cottage Hospital Ready July 1

The Mercer Cottage Hospital of Mercer, is planning a formal opening of the new addition to its Nurses Home, which has now been completed. The former structure was completed in 1927, and with the new addition, form a complete unit, costing in all about $40,000.00.

A Reception to mark the formal opening of the building will be held at the Nurses Home on Tuesday, July 1st, 1930, from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock, and from 7:00 to 9:00 o'clock, p. m., and the public is invited.

Build New $500,000 Stock Exchange Home

(International News Service) — DETROIT, June 20.—Work is going on rapidly here today on the new Detroit Stock Exchange, which will cost $500,000.

Ground was lately broken for the new building which will be available for occupancy in six months.

Prayer In Congress

The house met at 12 o'clock noon. The chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

O Spirit of Immortal Life, fill us with the certainty of Thy presence. Bless us all with the sense of Thy graciousness that we many strangely forget disappointment and find ourselves strong in Thee and made cheerful to pursue our work. May we never look with contempt upon the world nor our country nor our institutions. Always help us to rise to the very best things of life. If we are compelled to walk in affliction, may we rejoice as we do so. If defeat comes into our lives, give us the spirit of triumph. Break down the walls that separate men, and may we serve them with all their imperfections. Through Christ our Savior. Amen.

Faculty Members To Enter Schools

Seventeen Senior High School Instructors Will Study This Summer

Seventeen of the 60 instructors who comprise the faculty of the local senior high school are either already enrolled this summer in special courses at the larger universities or expect to depart shortly to take up advanced work, records of the school office revealed today.

While most of the teachers who will study this summer named in advance the school they will enter, several were undecided at the time the records were taken as to which school it would be. Several also plan to teach during the vacation months.

Teachers who will be enrolled in summer sessions or will serve as instructors themselves are as follows:

Harry D. Book, University of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Bessie Brinkerhoff, Cleveland; E. William Lehto, New Castle, undecided; Miss Mary Long, Carnegie Tech; Thomas E. Miller, University of Pittsburgh; Sarah E. McGoun, to instruct at the Rosedale Manor camp for girls, Fleischmann, N. Y.

Walter S. McKee, R. D. 9; Joseph P. Replogle, Carnegie Tech; Miss Mary Riffer, University of Pittsburgh; R. L. Weide, University of Pittsburgh; Miss Virginia Weinschenk, undecided, and Miss Suzanne Young, University of Pittsburgh.

Miss Ethel M. Kelly, French school, Western Reserve university, Cleveland; E. William Lehto, New Castle, undecided; Miss Mary Long, Carnegie Tech; Thomas E. Miller, University of Pittsburgh; Sarah E. McGoun, to instruct at the Rosedale Manor camp for girls, Fleischmann, N. Y.

Wash Day Important To Sharpsburgers

Council Orders Factory To Heighten Factory Chimney For Housewives

(International News Service) — SHARPSBURG, Pa., June 20.—Additional evidence the housewife is coming into her own is on record today.

The evidence this time takes the form of a borough council order which recognizes Monday's Wash is a matter of public importance.

Several weeks ago residents complained to council that smoke from a stack on an industrial plant oven was soiling the laundry as it hung in the open to dry. The company was ordered to build its chimney higher.

After the extension was added to the stack, experimenting housewives discovered it still messed up the clothes.

An another addition was ordered for the stack.

Auto Driver Is Fatally Injured

BUTLER, Pa., June 20.—William Double, 21, living near Prospect, died in the Butler hospital late Wednesday night from injuries received when the automobile he was driving crashed headon with one driven by Merle Bryan, also of the Prospect district.

Highway police report that the accident occurred when Bryan tried to pass another car at the foot of Cranmer Hill, near Mt. Chestnut. It is alleged that Bryan did not see the oncoming car until too late to avoid a crash.

Double received head injuries, cuts and bruises on the face and body and a fractured leg. He was unconscious when taken to the hospital and remained in a critical condition until death. Bryan was severely injured, but is improving.

The engines and adjoining parts of both cars were so tightly interlocked that they had to be pulled apart by the wrecking cars called to the scene.

Prospect Resident Is Found Dead

PROSPECT, Pa., June 20.—Victor E. Riddle, 71, of Prospect, was found dead in bed this morning at the home of his brother, Arvin E. Riddle. Death was pronounced due to heart attack. A sister, Mrs. Annie Weigle, of Prospect, also survives. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning and burial will be in the Prospect cemetery.

Is Your Daughter Well and Strong?

There are three trying periods in a woman's life, when the girl matures to womanhood; when a woman gives birth to her first child; when a woman reaches middle age. At these times Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps to restore normal health and vigor. Thousands testify to its worth.

Daughter of Mrs. F. Butcher, R. No. 2, Gridley, Kansas
"My thirteen year old daughter Maxine was troubled with backache and pain when she came into womanhood. I knew Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would help her because I used to take it myself at her age. Now she does not have to stay home from school, and her color is good, she eats well and does not complain of being tired."
—Mrs. Floyd Butcher.

Daughter of Mrs. J. Bartholdi, Thompson's Addition, The Dalles, Oregon
"My daughter Magdalen did not seem to develop as she should. At times she had no pep at all and couldn't get her school work very easily. For four years we doctored her, off and on. Then a friend told us about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I got a bottle for Magdalen. Her nerves are quieting, her general health is better and she is now as normal as other girls. I really think the Compound helped her more than all the other medicine I gave her."
—Mrs. J. Bartholdi.

Daughter of Mrs. M. Milano, 1408 Park Ave., New York, New York
"My seventeen year old daughter Fannie was rundown, weak and nervous. Since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound she has gained in weight and strength. She eats and sleeps well. She is a packer and she is able to go to work every day. We recommend the medicine to other mothers and daughters."
—Mrs. M. Milano.

Speakers Thrill Large Audience At Convention

bringing the closing soothing message of a happy Christian life.

Afternoon Session
The afternoon session of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association opened with more members and workers registering and the lower floor of the Cathedral was well filled with Sabbath school workers and members for the program.

The reports of the various committees were given by the Place committee announcing that the Cathedral had been chosen for a permanent meeting place for the conventions as the position in the county was ideal and the building was a fitting place for such a meeting.

Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer of the Lutheran Theological seminary Gettysburg was the first speaker of the afternoon and his theme was "The Essentials of Leadership" and he brought out the different traits and the leaders of the young, or in fact those who lead the adults, should have in order to carry on their work successfully.

Percy L. Craig Memorial
At this point in the program Dr. C. J. Williamson of the Highland United Presbyterian church was introduced by Mr. Strickler and led in a memorial service to Percy L. Craig who had so long been associated with the work of the association and had shortly retired as state president at the time of his death the past winter.

Dr. Williamson said that in the words of Keats, persons and things are soon forgotten, but he did not agree with this statement, but said what we do in life affects more persons than we realize and the things we do live long after us. The life of Percy L. Craig was one that not only affected individuals but the state, the national and the international relationship of the Sabbath School association and much as we missed his mortal body we should feel that he had gone to his reward. After paying a glowing tribute to his memory, the audience rose and sweetly sang "Oh How Love I Thy Law" one of Mr. Craig's favorite hymns.

Rev. E. H. Bonnell, young people's secretary of the State Sabbath School association then spoke in warm terms of his relationship with Mr. Craig and the work they had done together and spoke highly of the energy, character and personality of the man who was loved by all who knew him and who found no task too hard to do if it was furthering the work of Jesus Christ.

Robert Strickler then spoke of Mr. Craig's work in the local Sabbath School association and used a striking picture of measuring the height of a rose but by means could its fragrance be measured. This was the work of Mr. Craig, it was immeasurable, its good is lasting. He spoke of him as being an ideal Christian gentleman, always an inspiration to those about him, full of encouragement, but his life was not ended with death he had been promoted to things above.

Dr. Williamson then concluded the memorial by telling of his life in the Highland United Presbyterian church, of which he was a member and how he not only was interested in the Sabbath school but in every department and as a closing thought, he eulogized Mrs. Craig as the unseen proponent, who was an inspiration to her husband in all his work, with an ideal family life as a background.

Young People's Speaker
Rev. E. H. Bonnell of Philadelphia and State Superintendent of Young People's work gave a most inspiring heart reaching address on "Young People in a Christian Community". He said we find what we are looking for when we look into the lives of the younger generation of today if we look for the bad we find it and if we look for the good, we find it, but much more good can be found than bad in the lives of our young people. But, he further stated, we can only find the same trait in the younger people that we find in the older ones and gave some striking and some humorous examples of the conduct of those along in life, that would put the young folks to shame.

He urged the churches to become more of a recreational center for the young folks, to put some light into our churches and let the young people know they were for their use in other ways than by just attending the Sabbath services.

He said in conclusion that denominational workers should form a council to take up the matter of providing suitable activities for the young people to keep them off the streets and out of questionable resorts.

Treasurer's Report
J. C. Miner, secretary of the local association, then gave the figures for the past year as to what had been taken in and what had been expended and gave the balance of $102.58 in the treasury as a beginning for the new year.

Dr. C. B. Winger of the Central Presbyterian church took the platform and told of the budget for the coming year, which would require about $2,000 and put the necessity of the financing of this organization before the people in a dignified, simple manner, after which the offering was lifted.

Seal Given
The class with 100% attendance at the afternoon session was that of Mrs. S. H. Shaw, Neshannock United Presbyterian church, for which they received the seal which is given each year.

There were other classes well represented, the Women's Bible class of the Croton avenue Methodist church having 41 out of 42 members present and the Third United Presbyterian church was well represented in classes.

Rev. McAllister Speaks
The address of the afternoon was delivered by Rev. F. B. McAllister, pastor of the Prospect avenue Baptist church of Buffalo, N. Y., and former pastor in this city, having ministered in the First Baptist and in the First Christian churches of this city, where he was beloved by all who knew him. He was accorded a hearty welcome on stepping out to speak.

He chose as the subject of his address this afternoon "What Is to Become of the Church" and in a masterful way brought before the people assembled the condition of affairs today in the church world, as well as in the industrial and the social world.

He began his sermon by telling of the walk of Jesus and his disciples 1900 years ago up into the mountains and of their questioning of him just prior to his death, with the searching question, "Wilt Thou Restore Us to the Kingdom?" and did not realize the power of Jesus.

When he sent them back to wait he said, "You will receive the power and the Holy Spirit will come upon you," and when this happened in the upper room the disciples were inspired by the power of the Holy Spirit and it is the same today, 1900 years after this happening, and the event which we celebrated such a short time ago, the Pentecost anniversary, and still they are asking, "What is to become of the church?"

There have been great changes in the past 10 years in the world, and people say the cities are making this spiritual change. Yes, the changes are there, but we have had cities as long as we have had humanity, but it seems some change enters into a man when he leaves his rural district and enters the city. Where he was a person, now he becomes a nonentity and has to join up with clubs and other forms of human companionship to get anywhere and this seems to take the spiritual life and longings out of him.

In the midst of the tumult and turmoil it is hard to hear the small voice of the church calling to him, the church saying does not make its call loud enough.

Dr. McAllister told of some of the religious leaders suggesting the doing away with the churches, but this can never be done; there are too many Christians in the land who will carry on, and he told of the revolutionizing of almost every walk of life, the business, the social, the industrial, the theatrical worlds having had their revolutions, but did they give up? No, emphatically no, he said, and so with the Christians, we must put our hand to the plow, our backs to the wall and carry on, becoming endued anew with the Holy Spirit and put forth a personal hand and a personal touch to the winning of souls to Jesus Christ.

Fellowship Dinner
Over 200 sat down to the Christian fellowship dinner at 6:30 which had been carefully prepared and served by the women of the First United Presbyterian church. Robert Strickler acted as toastmaster and Rev. Arthur M. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Ellwood City, invoked the divine blessing upon the assembly, the food and the furtherance of the work of this gathering.

During the dinner hour John Owens led in pep singing and following dinner a few brief remarks were made by Rev. M. Hadwin Fischer, of Gettysburg, emphasizing the fact that teachers in the religious work should be trained the same as they are for any other profession. Rev. E. H. Bonnell, young people's superintendent, also spoke a few minutes on the subject in which he is so vitally interested, the state camp conferences for young people, telling of the splendid workers that have been turned out of these training schools and how much they have done toward the uplift of the Kingdom of God.

Officers Installed
Opening the evening session John Owens directed his choir from the First Baptist church in a beautiful anthem after which the newly chosen officers took their places upon the stage and were inducted into office by Rev. M. Hadwin Fischer, he instructing them in the duties they were about to assume for another term.

Tolerance Speaker
Homer W. Topp, D. D., superintendent of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon league was then introduced to the audience and in greeting them said it was a pleasure to be invited to speak to a Lawrence county audience as the people of this county had made great strides in the direction of being interested in that of prohibition, and congratulated them on the kind of men they were sending to Harrisburg and Washington. He also lauded the women of the W. C. T. U. for the part they had taken in this work.

He said these people of this county would carry on, in spite of the discouragements that reach them on every side and the talk and propaganda of the "wet" element, still like Christ, even with the shadow of the cross looming ahead, still like him, they would go forward, even to the cross. No great problem is solved in a day, he said, in looking back, how many years did it take and how much effort on the part of those interested was used up in abolishing slavery; thus we must consider that in the last ten years great strides have been made in the Prohibition cause, in spite of the propaganda the wets produce, and in ten, twenty or even thirty years, if it takes that long, we shall see even greater things done, and perhaps the final downing of this great liquor traffic.

Need More Than Straw Votes
He also spoke of the different methods that had been used in fighting the curse, first there was the signing of the pledge, this helped a little, but it did not mean much; then there was local option, which helped a little more but did not solve the problem; then there was the great 18th amendment and although that has gone far, still as yet it has not solved the problem, but one great thing has been accomplished, this amendment has gone into the Constitution of the United States, and it will take more than a few straw votes and yelling for a referendum to undo the work the Christian people of the land have gone so far with.

But what must be done is to get to work, harder than ever, put forth even more effort in unity, and this is the work of the church. Get out the church vote, fight for it, talk it and keep it before the Christians until they become so filled with the subject that they cannot help but work. The eyes of the world are on America and we cannot, we dare not fail. "Hold Fast to That Which is God" he said, even prohibition at its worst is better than the licensed saloon and he quoted the difference in the sales of liquor during the past ten years.

Nothing can be built without a foundation in the amendment written into our Constitution. Our National Constitution is a sacred heritage from one generation to another. It is a stewardship placed in our hands, and for this stewardship we are responsible and accountable to our children, to the world and to God.

Whilst our Constitution recognizes this as "the land of the free" it is a question, confronting us today whether we are not giving the word "free" too liberal and broad an interpretation and incorporating elements in our body politic, that will work out ruin. I would not restrict the broadest meaning possible to be given the word "free" in our Constitution, but I would limit the exercise of this freedom, when it works an injury to others, directly or indirectly.

We talk of an unswerving flag. That is American patriotism. How can we talk of an unswerving flag, and not talk of an unswerving Constitution—a Constitution that created and supports that flag? No flag waves higher, or freer, or more triumphantly than the constitution underneath it.

The Constitution is its strength and security, and gives our flag its beauty and power, and causes it to wave so majestically amidst the breezes of heaven, wherever unfurled. Long and triumphantly may it continue to wave, at home and abroad.

The Constitution is the defense of our National life, the parapet built around our country.

Work Ahead
Our duty lies plain before us.

With resolute, indomitable will; unquenchable zeal, invincible determination and praiseworthy perseverance we must press on. We must take opportunity by the forelock. It is said that "Time brings everything to those who wait." It is noticeable however, that they get it soonest who go after it quickest. Although sorely tried by delays we must not become impatient. All is not lost that is delayed. We must cultivate optimism; one which will enable us to meet every obstacle with an inspiration, and see the harbingers of success in every situation.

The task before us is not a light one although the situation is greatly improved. The problems we seek to solve are sufficiently complex to test the powers of our wisest statesmen, our most erudite economists, our most enlightened philanthropists and our bravest patriots.

For the work ahead, and there is plenty of it, we need more help.

We need increased helpfulness on the part of the church. We need her moral support and her prayers. We need her open door that our speakers may expose and answer all misleading wet propaganda, and we need a largely increased financial support from her members.

Religion, patriotism and humanity called us into this work; and the revelations of science, the teachings of history, the obvious needs of civilization and the experience of mankind cheer us on.

Best of all, God is with us. In the past He blessed us and we can plently rely on His future blessings. We are laborers with Him, and He Himself is at the heart of affairs.

What a re-encouragement do we find in a conscious certainty, of the righteousness of our cause, of the practicability of our methods, of the selfishness of our purpose, and of the blessing of our God, which enable us to press on in our work with a cheerful and unshakable confidence in a final and complete victory.

Let us then press on, impervious to all misleading wet propaganda, and absolutely obtuse to all things which would lessen our sense of responsibility, divert our minds from the high purpose for which we contend, or turn our eyes from the glorious vision of a redeemed and perfected humanity for which we strive.

Rev. McAllister Talks
Rev. F. B. McAllister, of Buffalo, N. Y., again took the platform at the evening session and was most cordially greeted by the large audience, many of whom had been members of his church, while he was laboring in this city.

He said he was glad to be asked to give the closing sermon to this grand and glorious convention that had been held and a quiet, soothing sermon was what he proposed preaching and took for his text Corinthians 5:17, "If Any Man Is In Christ, He Is A New Creature" and took as his theme the conversion of Paul, bringing out the fact that after Paul had received the Holy Ghost and heard the voice of Jesus Christ speak to him, he had become as one born again.

He told of how Paul had fought against Christianity, how he had withstood the pleadings of Stephen and some of the earlier disciples and had persecuted the Christians until he had seen the light, then Paul was one of the greatest workers that Christianity has produced.

He then applied this same story to that of the modern day, bringing forth some truths of the conversion and great work and leadership of men of recent years, after they had received the Holy Spirit and been born again. The influence of persons on others he brought out forcibly and dwelt on the personal influence we can exert, even in this day and age, and how much each individual can do to bring about the Kingdom of God and the application of the Golden Rule.

Medals Awarded
Beautiful seals, to be hung on the walls of the class room were awarded, one at the fellowship dinner, to the Wurttemberg United Presbyterian church, for the greatest percentage of attendance at the dinner and again in the evening, the Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church, of which Rev. McAllister had been the teacher.

Red Cross Moving Offices Today

Delay In Getting New Quarters Ready, Held Up Moving Date For Several Weeks

Officers of the Lawrence County Chapter, American Red Cross, are being moved from the Temple Building to 8 1-2 East street, where a suite of rooms will be occupied across the hall from the Associated Charities and Lawrence County tuberculosis society.

Moving will take place this afternoon and by tomorrow, the Red Cross will be open for business in their new quarters.

The move was made as an economy measure and to further consolidate the welfare agencies operating under the Community Chest. A substantial saving will be made through the new arrangement.

The new telephone number of the Red Cross will be 5084.

There is always conflict in nature. Lawn grass, for example, always decides to come up just where the dog decides to dig a hole.

By All Means Be Here Tomorrow! You'll Never Regret Attending!

Bo-Broadway
by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

By Central Press
NEW YORK, June 20.—The order of the Raspberry with the Three Palms is hereby conferred upon John O'Donnell, who on one of the quiet stretches fringing Cathedral Parkway is about to open a funeral parlor. John announces his intent by means of the subjoined sign that at present presides the premises.

"John O'Donnell—Premier of that most delicate and intimate profession—past master of the art of occasional etiquette—peerless sympathizer with those in trouble—will open here, when alterations are complete, a dignified and refined up-to-the-minute funeral parlor."

"O Grave, where is thy victory! O Death, where is thy sting!"

He reminded the cold and ragged end of his out-door car and smiled at me through his iron-rimmed spectacles.

"I haven't time," he replied. "Another thing, if I went in for fiction writing I'd have to sacrifice the priceless luxury of hanging round a city room, the smell of the ink and the paper and the tickety-click-click of the telegraph machines. The ordered disorder of the life—you know, the sights and sounds and smells of the shop that make up to the newspaper man for the one or two things he misses in life here and there."

George Cohan used to step into the hospital several times a week and cheer her up, and one time when he was there he asked her if there was anything he could do for her. She told him there was. "The first Sunday I'm out of here," she said, "I want to have a dinner at The Friars."

Two years later she emerged, and on an historic Sunday evening The Friars and their friends—all the stage folk and the gang from the newspaper shops who could possibly get away—were on hand in the grand ballroom of the Astor to do honor to Nellie Revell, who sat in state in a wheel chair banked with flowers.

Everybody got up and reeled off a lot of oratory—Willie Collier and Will Rogers and all that crowd—and finally old Irv. Cobb struggled to his feet and said some things about Nellie Revell that everyone present will remember to his dying day. It was a masterful tribute by The Old Master and when he got down to the end of his talk he stopped a few seconds and said this:

"A lot of people call me a humorist. A lot of people call me a short story writer—an after-dinner speaker—and a lot of other things. I'll tell you about that. I'm none of those things. I never have been anything and I never want to be anything but a reporter. And the highest praise I ever hope to deserve is to have someone whose sense of values I respect call me a GOOD reporter."

That's the story my newspaper friend Charley told me, so I'd understand why he never "went in for" fiction.

BETWITCHED EYE
The genial, talented and urbane Dr. Aughinbaugh, guiding genius of The Explorers Club, numbers among his acquaintances a gentleman with a glass eye—an unfettered soul, who instead of being depressed, derives therefrom an infinite measure of merriment.

Sit next beside him at a dinner, turn to address him, and imagine your astonishment to find his right eye, once blue, has suddenly become red. The next time you look at him it's green, then yellow, and taking a final glance to convince yourself of your sobriety you are nearly driven mad by the sight of an American flag painted across the eyeball.

Risks Her Life To Rescue Youth

CLEARFIELD, June 20.—Miss Johanna Powell, of Clearfield, rescued Angelo Paranello, aged 12, of Curwensville, from drowning at the swimming pool at Irwin Park.

Paranello had ventured out into the rapids below the spillway of the dam and was being carried down by the current. His cries for help drew the attention of Miss Powell and, although fully clothed, she plunged into the water and brought Paranello to safety.

To Exhibit U. S. Art In Germany

(International News Service)
MUNICH, June 20.—An exhibition of pictures from American galleries and private American collections will be held here in the house of the Munich Art Union from the middle of June to the middle of July. It includes works of American artists covering the last century. The exhibits come from Stockholm, where they have been shown on invitation of the Swedish Crown Prince.

Proposed New Science Building At Grove City College

Included in a $750,000 building program for Grove City College, approved by the Board of Trustees at a recent meeting, is a new home for the Science Department. A sketch of the building, made by The W. G. Eckley Company, architects of New Castle, is reproduced above.

The new Science Hall will cost approximately $300,000. It will be more than 200 feet long and will contain laboratories for the physics, chemistry and biology departments, a large lecture room and smaller lecture and class rooms. In this building will also be housed a drafting room, machine and woodworking shops, museum and library.

OH, THESE WOMEN!

By LEOLA ALLARD

You middle aged men who refuse to consider marriage with anyone but a pretty, cheerful young woman will now have the pleasure of listening to a woman from Seattle, Washington, who arises to remark that you "better get out your carpet slippers, stop trying to be collegiate, and act your age."

aged man has bald spots and a stomach.

The silly age starts around thirty five," says this woman. "Men get the young girl complex about forty. Unless they snap out of it they are just hopeless old bores at fifty."

woman in the thirties who won't be dragging them places and craving constant entertainment. Another thing, if he won't gad, someone else will. Then divorce.

"Now, let's bring out the easy chair, the carpet slippers and some good sound sense. This obsession will pass. All men have it. You know—like measles. It's not a chronic ailment."

Alright, Adele, now I've told it to the gentleman from Oklahoma at whom you say you are shooting. Perhaps he is forty and will recover as you say. But it's pretty difficult to set marriage ages, because some men are young at fifty and some are old at thirty. I've known women of fifty who had the spirit of youth and young girls who were nice old ladies. Mr. Oklahoma may be one of the exceptions.

Marseilles Prepares For Annual Fair

MARSEILLES, June 20.—This city is beginning its preparations for the Sixth International Fair of Marseilles, which will be held here from September 13 to September 28. The character of this exposition is particularly Mediterranean and French colonial with a large number of exhibits from Algiers. The committee of organization declares that the number of entries is already mounting to more than those of previous years. Last year over 600,000 entries were exhibited.

Burgess Of Bessemer Believes In Cooperation Boro Is Most Orderly

There is little of law violation in Bessemer. Not that the residents of this thriving boro are different in general makeup than those of any other place, but the fact remains that there is little law violation there.

Such a condition is rather surprising when it is remembered that the population of Bessemer is a most heterogeneous one. Here are located men and women of Austrian descent, Scandinavian, Slavish, Finnish and from southern Europe. With such a mixture of races it would not be surprising if there was some clashing, but the fact remains that there isn't.

Blame it on the Burgess.

Among those familiar with the condition the "blame" or rather the credit for such a condition is largely laid at the door of the Burgess, Alfred J. Eales, who for the past five years has been at the head of the executive department of the boro administration.

"We believe in helping each other," said the Burgess in speaking of the condition of Bessemer. "We have many people here who were born in other countries, but by contact and association with their friends here they soon learn that Bessemer believes in good order and we have no racial clashes or factional disturbances such as you might think would occur."

"Prevention is worth more than cure, and if I can prevent a man going into court and paying a lot of court costs, he is a lot better off financially and the community is a lot better off. The same idea is shared by the people out here and we believe in arbitrating our difficulties before they get to the place where it takes a court adjudication."

Burgess Eales himself is a native of another country, being born in England. In 1907 he came to America, locating in Youngstown, O. Later he was transferred to Bessemer by the Bessemer company and for many years has been a citizen of the boro. The fact that he is now serving his second term as Burgess is an indication of the high esteem in which he is held.

When the United States entered the World war Burgess Eales jumped in with the 37th division, being a member of the 112th Engineers. With them he served overseas and the experience he had in the army has stood him in good stead. He knows that fighting doesn't settle an argument as satisfactorily as arbitration and he is in the nature of the boro's arbitrator.

Assisting Burgess Eales in preserving the good reputation of Bessemer is Constable Archie Shoup. If Archie had to depend upon law violations inside the boro for his livelihood he would soon be applying for admission to the county home. He too is a believer in arbitration and many a case that might easily be taken into court is settled right in Bessemer to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Name Goldberg Vice President

Former Manager Of New Castle Plant Given Another Promotion

Henry M. Goldberg, former manager of the New Castle plant of the Reick-McJunkin Company has again been advanced in the Company organization. Mr. Goldberg has been named as Vice President of the company, being elected at the same time Wynn M. Morris, former General Sales Manager of the company is made president.

The election of Mr. Goldberg as Vice President comes as a pleasant surprise to his many friends here. Coming to New Castle in 1917 as manager of the local plant, he demonstrated to his supervisors his ability as an executive. In addition, he soon became a part of the civic life of the city and few civic projects but saw him actively engaged.

The establishment of the New Castle plant was the first time Reick-McJunkin had branched out from Pittsburgh. This step was soon followed by the acquisition of other plants and today there are 12 plants in the organization. When Mr. Goldberg left the New Castle plant about 18 months ago, he was made general superintendent of the Pittsburgh plant and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors. His election as vice president further increases his duties and responsibilities.

In the field of ice cream manufacture, the Reick-McJunkin Company ranks high. In size and in quality of production the company has an envied position and much of this is due to the work of Henry M. Goldberg. His elevation to the vice presidency is a step that is warranted by ability and achievement and is a verification by the stockholders of the company of the high esteem in which Mr. Goldberg is held here in New Castle.

Mississippi's Rum Row Dealt Smashing Blow In Raid On Houseboat

U. S. prohibition agents dumping beer into the Mississippi river.

By Central Press.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 20.—Rum row on the Mississippi river!

That is the latest wrinkle in violation of the prohibition laws.

On the Mississippi here there are many houseboats. For some time federal prohibition agents have been watching one of these in particular. Several days ago a number of agents, including a professional informer, visited the suspicious boat. This visit was made incognito.

The following day five agents, including the three who previously had boarded the boat, paid a return call. They reported finding two customers drinking beer. Behind the bar was a woman. The dry officers told her she was under arrest.

The woman laughed as she replied, "You can't arrest me. I'm not selling liquor. I am giving it away."

The woman learned that in spite of this plea she could be arrested and she was taken in tow by government agents. She gave her name as

Mrs. Anna Johnson and now faces a charge of sale and possession of liquor as well as the charge of operating a nuisance.

This "floating beer flat" was situated less than two blocks from the University of Minnesota and it is reported that the federal originally got their tip from a university student. A student found in the place at the time of the raid was released, while another man was taken to the jail as a material witness.

The agents reported that they found approximately 100 quarts of beer in bottles, together with several larger vats in which beer was being made.

One of the features of the floating beer palace, according to the agents making the raid, was that it could be reached only by traversing a narrow gang plank, running fully 40 feet from the shore.

The agents found the boat sumptuously furnished. There was a radio, portable phonograph and piano used for furnishing music during week-end parties. A well-stocked larder of cheese and meats was also there.

The five agents making the raid dumped the beer vats after mixing soap in it.

If the federal prohibition bureau follows its usual course, this floating beer flat will be padlocked for one year as a nuisance. The establishment on the Mississippi will then go down in the history of enforcement of the prohibition law as the first houseboat to be padlocked.

Reports 190 Rabid Dogs During Year

HARRISBURG, June 20.—One hundred and ninety cases of rabies have been reported in Pennsylvania so far this year, according to the bureau of animal industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

Persons bitten by rabid dogs number 106 and animals bitten, 621. Only one general quarantine against rabies—that in Schuylkill county—is now in force. This quarantine became effective May 12 for 100 days. Reports from the county indicate that the regulations are meeting with the approval of dog owners and that the public is giving splendid co-operation.

The principle of the rotor-ship, among the most sensational of recent inventions, is acknowledged by its inventor to be based upon an invention made no less than 80 years ago.

Red Cagle has crowded football, matrimony and newspaper reporting into one short month. Some men can stand a lot of punishment.

The "business men" who entertained Al Capone at Miami are probably just as authentic as the "scientists" who "discover" cure-alls.

SUCH POPULARITY Indeed Is Deserving

It is because we sell "better meat" that our market has become one of the most popular and most frequented of any in the city.

Over a long period of years we have catered to an unusually large number of patrons. And, too, New Castle's leading hotels and restaurants handle our meats exclusively. These meats are used daily to serve our business men and women, our busy shoppers and the visitors to our fair city.

The continued patronage of our good customers, hotels and restaurants, is indicative of the quality of meats we sell in our market. This popularity is attributed to the fact that we have "better meat" to sell at prices that are right.

We also handle a nice line of vegetables and groceries. We list a few of our Saturday specialties for your convenience.

Veteran Policeman Would Stop Coddling Criminals

By RALPH JORDAN
International News Service Special Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20—Abolish prison reformers: silence sob sisters' hang murderers: make prison life "tough" and—

"Treat a crook like a scoundrel, for that's all he is or ever will be."

That, in a nutshell, is Duncan Matheson's idea of deterring crime in America, and Matheson, now city treasurer of San Francisco, speaks from a background of thirty years on the police force, here, thirteen of which he was chief of detectives.

"These social workers and other amateur prison reformers have the wrong slant on the crook," Matheson said today. "He isn't a misfit in society. He's a downright scoundrel and no brain operation or educational program ever will correct him."

"What will correct him, is a short, sharp prison sentence in a prison that is a prison instead of a rest camp. Feed him well and house him warmly in sanitary surroundings. Then make him work like fury and deny him all luxuries like tobacco, sweets, newspapers, radios, shows, and baseball games. He won't like that and will try to stay out of prison in the future."

"But the way it is now many men live better in prison than they ever did out."

Matheson claims he never saw a crook who was a medical case "except those with diabetes or gout from rich prison fare" and that the insanity law is just a ruse to open the doors to asylums from which escape is easy.

He likes Canadian methods. "One time I saw an American crook on the street in Ontario," he said. "I asked him how he was."

"Awful," answered the crook. "I just got through serving 2 years and 10 months of a 3 year sentence for blowing safes. And what I mean, I served them. I'm getting back to the good old United States as fast as I can. No more of the Canadian prisons."

"That same crook here," added Matheson "would have got a long sentence, served just a small part of it in pleasant surroundings and would have gone right back to safe cracking. Our prisons are no deterrents."

"And as for capital punishment, it prevents murders. Our life sentences mean about thirteen years as a rule because of pardons, paroles, and time off. Then these killers are thrown back on society."

"Going back to Canada again, I know of 2 criminals there who waited until a man got into the United States to kill him. They hang 'em too quick in Canada to take a chance one of the them told me."

Foreign Phone Service Heaviest At 11 A. M.

(International News Service)
BOSTON, June 20—A recent survey showed the foreign telephone service reaches its peak between the hours of 10 and 11 a. m., New York time, which is from 3 to 4 p. m. London time.

A more than ordinary rise in the service is also noticeable in the afternoon hour at about 2 o'clock and again in the evening about 7.

During 1929 the average daily calls were about fifty, the largest in one particular day being 139.

A vast improvement in transmission and the speed of completing factors of the report.

Makes Dangerous Flight Over Andes

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, June 20—An interesting flight over a difficult mountain range was successfully completed recently when Lieutenant Benjamin Mendez, a former student of the Curtiss Wright Flying School at Curtiss Airport, N. Y., piloted a Curtiss Falcon over the Andes Mountains, from Bogota, Columbia, to Quito, Ecuador, South America.

This is said to be the first time this feat has been attempted for it is considered one of the difficult passes in the Andes Mountains.

Lieutenant Mendez received his training in America commercial army and navy schools and, after showing aptitude for flying was commissioned by the Columbian government a lieutenant in its army. In the fall of 1928, he flew to South America, touring several countries on a good will trip which won him recognition as an expert aviator.

Plans Long Trip At Age Of 95

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., June 20.—Just 95 years of age, Harry Mason, of Slippery Rock, is contemplating making his fourteenth pilgrimage to England, his former home. He applied this week at Butler for a passport to make the trip.

He came to America shortly after the Civil War, and has been a citizen since 1880. He will make the long trip alone.

For the past several years he has made his home here with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horsman.

Prepare To Place Memorials Along Old Forbes Road

Will Commemorate Victorious March Of British After Taking Fort Duquesne

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, June 20—Allegheny county will be represented by two historical spots among the 50 in Western Pennsylvania which will be marked before September with tablets and memorials commemorating the old Forbes Road, over which the British army which took Fort Duquesne from the French in 1768, marched victoriously to the then Western Frontier.

One of the markers will be placed at Peterman's Crossing on the Saltsburg road, just east of Wilkensburg. It was from this crossroads that Colonel George Washington and other leaders of the British expedition, saw the flames shooting skyward from the blazing Fort Duquesne as the French garrison deserted it.

Another tablet, provided by the Fort Pitt Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, approve, will be placed on the walls inside the Blockhouse at the Point in this City.

From Bedford to Pittsburgh, the markers will be dedicated as they are set up. They are being cast now and are expected to be placed by September.

Sites for the monuments and tablets were selected and staked by William Stevenson, president, and Dr. H. H. Shenk, secretary, of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission; Professor John Kennedy Lacock, Boston, and John A. Moore, chief engineer of the state department of revenue.

HARD-SOFT CORNS

Out To Stay Out—Roots And All
Magic Oxygen Salts Bath Never Fails.
No More Burning Aching Feet.

No matter how many corns you have or how painful they are—soak your feet for 15 minutes in a delightful soothing and revitalizing Radox footbath for 3 or 4 nights—then lift corns and callouses right out—roots and all and they won't come back either unless you wear shoes again which aggravate your feet.

No cutting or digging is required because Radox liberates oxygen which softens hard outer layers of corns, each night penetrating the pores further and further, carrying the salts right to roots of corns which are so loosened they can be lifted out bodily. Your feet are made strong—healthy—vigorous—hard skin on heels and toes goes also.

Radex's of New Castle, Inc., and all good drugstores are stocked with Radox—if they aren't, insist upon them ordering it if you want to experience great foot-joy and comfort.

Tickets To Mushball Benefit Game On June 27,
We Refer To

You can wait a couple of days more if you want to, but really you ought to get them now. The tickets for the mushball game on June 27, with the proceeds going to the Jameson Memorial hospital.

A matter stands today there are 500 or 600 tickets sold and this number should be multiplied by 10 or 12. The price is within reach of any one save a fellow down a well, 25 cents a copy, and all you want to a customer.

Wes Davy, who is chairman of the idea, says that the evening will be so full of entertainment that he is afraid the customers will object to being out so late. A mushball game with plans Wagner in the game, a Boy Scout exhibition, some tumbling, a good band or what have you?

It's easy to get a ticket. Just get hold of some of the mushball league players or call Wes Davy or drop in at Hub Hart's or the Sporting Goods store and they'll take care of you.

Less than a week to go until the game, Friday night, June 27, in Taggart stadium and the tickets are a quarter. How many please?

Jersey Breeders
Enjoy Picnic

Interesting Time Is Reported At The Place Of Frank B.
Patterson

A very interesting picnic gathering of the Butler County Jersey Breeders Association was held Thursday, June 19th, all day at the farm of Frank B. Patterson of Worth Township, Butler county. There were 115 in attendance and it proved a very successful and delightful affair. A picnic dinner at noon was one of the features of the occasion.

Jennings McCauley, president of the association, presided as chairman, at the session during the afternoon, at which Butler County Farm Agent McDougall and Lewis B. Morley, secretary of the American Jersey Cattle Club, were principal speakers.

These speakers gave exhaustive and interesting talks, in which they urged the need of doing away with scrub cattle and getting better bred cattle, the maintenance of more careful records of their cattle. Better cattle were urged for the purpose of increasing the production of more butterfat, which means a better price.

After this meeting, those present adjourned to the home of Mr. Patterson, who has some of the finest pure bred Jersey cattle in this section of the country, where Ira L. Cleland gave a most interesting talk in the breeding of this stock.

New Federal Rules
On Apple Grading
To Govern State

HARRISBURG, June 20.—The revised official standards for apples packed in containers, other than the northwestern apple box, made effective by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on May 24, automatically become the official grades for use in Pennsylvania, according to an announcement today by the bureau of markets, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

Growers and shippers of apples are being urged by the bureau to acquaint themselves with the new grades and combinations as well as changes in the old grades. Briefly, the new grades comprise the following changes:

"U. S. Fancy," U. S. No. 1 and "U. S. Commercial" are practically unchanged except that a new designation, "U. S. No. 1 Early," is provided for certain early varieties such as Wealthy, Duchess and Gravenstein, which need not have the red color characteristics for the variety. This new grade is intended to take care of the apples which are picked early in the season primarily for cooking purposes.

"U. S. Utility" is the new name given to the old "U. S. No. 2" grade which is also changed to allow for hand-picked apples only. "U. S. Utility Early" is now provided for the lower grade of early apples.

Three new combinations of grades may now be used and labeled on the barrel head or basket lid as follows: "Combination U. S. Fancy and U. S. No. 1," "Combination U. S. No. 1 and U. S. Commercial," and "Combination U. S. No. 1 and U. S. Utility." In each case at least 5 per cent of the apples in the container must be of the better grade of the combination. It is expected that though the great use of those combinations the use of "Unclassified" or "Commercial" classifications will be lessened, particularly where the lots of fruit contain high percentages of good quality stock.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN
Claude Green, 838 East Lutton St., reported to the police this morning that his Buick roadster bearing Ohio license D61497 has been stolen from the Cascade Park parking grounds.

Postmaster and Mrs. Edwin W. Crawford, East Wallace avenue, who have been visiting with Mrs. John Q. Stewart of Harrisburg, during the past few days, returned home last night. They plan to attend the postmaster's picnic honoring Postmaster George Groser, of Pittsburgh, at Slippery Rock tomorrow. Mr. Crawford will not resume his duties until about June 30.

Efforts of go-getters are not wholly wasted. The breeze they make spinning swinging doors counteracts their hot air.

ARREST MAN IN PHILADELPHIA AS SUSPECT IN CASE

escaped from the Creedmore State Hospital for the Insane at Creedmore, L. I., they said.

He does not answer descriptions broadcast thus far of the "Phantom Slayer" who claimed two lives in Queensborough, N. Y., wounded another last night and marked fourteen other persons for death.

He is chunky and powerful, possessing almost superhuman strength. Clarke was hustled from the room, screaming at the detectives who refused to divulge where they were taking him.

Questioned By Detectives
A short time later, however, the detective appeared at City Hall and showed their prisoner through a crowd of curious spectators into the detective bureau.

Here a steady cross-fire of questioning was begun, concerning the murders of Joseph Mozynski and Noel Sowley in New York.

Clarke mumbled wildly of "the pretty blonde nurse," gesticulating and talking incoherently.

Detectives pointed out that New York's maniac murderer had mentioned a blonde nurse in his letters to the New York Journal.

The quizzing began to center on "the pretty blonde nurse" when mention of the mysterious woman was found in a package of 200 mimeographed letters seized in the room where Clarke had been arrested.

Find Many Letters
These letters bore a Brooklyn, N. Y., return address and were addressed to New York residents. Detectives refused to reveal either the address of the New York persons or the return address in Brooklyn.

One of the letters was addressed to the district attorney of Queens county and asked that habeas corpus action be started against the state institution at Creedmore, L. I.

The letters were vague and incoherently jumbled in their phrasing, referring to many stage and screen celebrities, including Earl Carroll, Helen Morgan, Mae Murray, Gilda Gray, Ann Pennington, Al Jolson, George M. Cohan, Fred Stone, Marion Davies, Puster Collier, Will Rogers, Greta Garbo, Beanie Love, Rudy Vallee, George Olsen, Ted Lewis and Jack Johnson, former heavyweight boxing champion.

Important Letter
Another and far more important letter also is in possession of detectives. It was revealed, through which they hope to connect the suspect with the New York murders. Efforts to learn the contents of this letter were unavailing. Detectives asserted revelation of the text might endanger their case.

Clarke wore a red sweater and cap when captured. A gray business suit was found in a grip in his room. Examination of the prisoner disclosed numerous tattoo designs on his body.

He will be taken to New York late today for further questioning. Clarke made his escape from the institution at Creedmore on June 3, 1929 and has been an active correspondent with officials and inmates of the asylum since that time although he had successfully eluded searching parties sent out to locate him.

His capture today came as the result of one of his letters being traced. That letter, detectives said, was sent to F. W. Clark, of 9321 205th street, Queens Village, L. I., not far from the scene of the two murders.

Clarke was taken to District Attorney John Monaghan's office this afternoon. Here, extradition papers were drawn up, the prisoner indicated his willingness to waive extradition proceedings, he had regained his composure by this time.

The prisoner's mother is understood to be Mrs. Louise Clarke of 338 Forty-first street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Believe Philadelphia Man Marked
PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—That John Moszczyński, a resident of the Port Richmond section of Philadelphia, is marked for death by New York's maniac slayer, was the purport of a special delivery letter, bearing a New York postmark, received at his home at 3325 Almond street today.

The letter gave Moszczyński until Saturday to "surrender valuable papers" under threat of being the "third on the list of the doomed." The madman instructed his intended victim to leave "the papers" in the restroom of the Broad street railroad station.

Although the letter is believed to have been the work of a crank by members of Moszczyński's family, police here attached much significance to it, pointing out that the handwriting tallies with letters received from the maniac slayer by the New York Evening Journal.

The authorities have doubled the guard around the home of Moszczyński.

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, June 20.—The massacre murderer has struck again from the dark—apparently.

For the third time within a week, a man was shot in an automobile, with no sensible motive discernible.

Morris Horwitz, 50-year-old insurance man, was the third victim. He was in a critical condition today in the hospital with a bullet in his stomach.

Bullet Goes Wild.
The two previous victims were killed outright. Perhaps Horwitz might have met a similar fate only the second bullet from the gun of his attacker went wild.

His assailant escaped. Horwitz was putting up his car for the night outside his Brooklyn home. His wife was sitting on the porch. Ben Horwitz, his son, who is a young lawyer, was sitting at a window.

As Horwitz assumed his position behind the driving wheel, a hatless, slightly-built man suddenly appeared out of the darkness.

a revolver suddenly down on the head of Horwitz. Then he fired into the slumped body of the insurance broker. One bullet hit Horwitz in the shoulder and ranged down through into his stomach. The second bullet went wild.

At the sound of the shots, Mrs. Horwitz, on the porch, screamed and fainted. Her husband had been chatting with her from his place in the machine only a few moments before. The would-be assassin ran east on Carroll street to Brooklyn avenue and disappeared up an alley.

Assailant Escapes.
Al and Leon Zalb, brothers and neighbors of Horwitz, pursued the fleeing man in their automobile. They lost him and then returned and took Horwitz to the hospital.

Within a few minutes 300 policemen had formed a cordon around the scene and a house to house search for the attacker followed.

Two .45 calibre cartridge shells were found. The massacre maniac had used similar calibre bullets in his Long Island slayings.

Horwitz told detectives today from his hospital bed that his assailant looked "wild-eyed as if he were crazy." He said he was about five feet four inches tall, weighed 130 pounds, was blonde and wore a dark suit but no hat.

Horwitz has another son, George, ten years old, who was asleep in his bedroom on an upper story at the time his father was shot. Ruth, 14, a daughter, was away from home.

Has No Enemies.
Horwitz said that he had no enemies that he knew of and was not acquainted with either Joseph Mozynski or Noel Sowley. The two men were murdered at different times while in automobiles with girls on lonely Long Island roads.

Both girls, Catherine May and Betty Ring, were taken to various police stations to view a number of suspects arrested in the gigantic manhunt reaching an intense stage today.

Lieut. Joseph Smith, ace detective of the police department, conferred with Police Commissioner Joseph Mulrooney immediately after the latest shooting and then left hurriedly for an unknown assignment.

Smith was the detective who trailed Judd Gray, one of the principals in the famous Gray-Snyder murder, and finally arrested him upstate.

Byrd May Make Another Trip
To Antarctica

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 20.—Intimation that Rear Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd will make another trip to Antarctica to complete his conquest of the South Pole Region, was made today when Byrd told newspapermen there was much yet to be done before the full benefit of his discoveries could be realized.

"I don't want to talk yet about going back," Byrd said, "because I am in the midst of strategizing out the finances of the expedition just finished but much remains to be done there."

Two Men Injured
In Auto Accidents

Fire Hydrant Is Also Damaged
In One Of The Accidents Reported

James Brady, 19 West North street, reported to the police Thursday that he was enroute east on Mahoning avenue at the east end of the Gardner avenue viaduct, when the steering apparatus on his car locked and he couldn't move the same, with the result that his machine crashed into the fire hydrant at the east end of the viaduct.

He was knocked through the windshield of his machine and sustained a severe cut on the left arm. The city authorities are looking to Mr. Brady for payment of the cost of placing the hydrant in condition.

Howard H. Stimpel of R. D. No. 8, was enroute north on Liberty street at the curve at Miller road Thursday, when Walter McGee of R. D. No. 8 was enroute in the same direction.

McGee stopped suddenly and Stimpel's machine crashed into the McGee car, causing damage to both. McGee was injured on the nose and lip and taken to the New Castle hospital, where his injuries were attended to. They were not serious.

Anthony Rich of 229 Crawford avenue, reported that he was enroute east on Croton avenue, when a car bearing Pennsylvania License 6709E also going east, topped as about to make a right turn into an alley and the Rich machine hit it. Both machines were damaged.

BICYCLE MISSING
H. L. Reitz, 503 Neshannock avenue reported today to the police that an Elgin bicycle had been stolen from his place.

Law Enforcement Commission May Get More Latitude

Free Hand To Report On Merits Of Prohibition May Be Extended

COMMISSION TO BE EXTENDED FOR YEAR

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 20.—The Wickersham law enforcement commission will be given a free hand to report on the merits of prohibition, and $250,000 to conduct its investigations for another year, in the second deficiency bill which is expected to pass the house today.

This was assured when leading house drys rejected proposals that a "rider" be written into the bill specifically prohibiting the commission from discussing the merits of the dry law when it reports again to congress.

Thus far the committee has confined its efforts to finding means of making dry law enforcement more effective. This policy is expected to be continued, although chairman George W. Wickersham has admitted members of the commission believe if they come to the conclusion that the volstead act cannot be enforced they should so say.

Rep. Cranton (R) of Michigan, house dry leader said he was content to vote the $250,000 appropriation without changing the language of the law establishing the body. He maintains the commission should avoid the merits of prohibition, and is convinced it will not embarrass President Hoover by extending its scope.

Approval of the appropriation was expected to be accompanied by speeches of wets flaying the commission as useless.

The $250,000 fund appeared to have easy sailing in the house, but is expected to be carefully scrutinized in the senate.

MYSTERY KILLINGS BAFFLE POLICE

New York: stirred by a series of murders in lonely sections of Queens, L. I., supposedly committed by an insane person, who writes letters to the New York newspapers telling them of his deed. One such letter was received before police found the victim's body. Top, Joseph Moynsky, College Point grocer, the maniac's first victim; lower left, Miss Catherine May, the grocer's companion, when he was shot in "lovers' lane"; lower right, Noel Sowley, who was found dead near his car. The killer declares in notes that he has killed a third man and that 14 more are marked for death.

Sale Of Property For 1929 Taxes To Be Made August 4

Sales of land for county taxes will now be held each year instead of every two years under a recent act of the legislature, according to County Treasurer, Adda M. Smiley.

There are now a large number of properties on which the taxes have not been paid for 1929 and which will be sold on August 4th, unless the taxes are paid by July 1 in order to prevent sales of property. The taxes on which sales will be made include county, poor, school and road, where returns of delinquent taxes have been made by the various collectors of the county. In some instances the tax as it stands at present is small, but it will cost considerable more if the property goes to sale. Very often persons who are able to pay their taxes overlook them, and in other cases the parties have been unable to pay.

Ask For Change In Sidewalk Grade

Civil Engineer Stewart appeared before council today as the representative of several property-owners and requested a change in the grade of the west side sidewalk of North Mercer street between Hillcrest and Hazlecroft avenues so sidewalks can be laid. He said under present conditions the sidewalk would be two feet and one half higher than the street and he would like the grade for the sidewalks lowered.

Arlington Avenue Case Postponed

Commission And Council To Act Finally June 27 And June 30

Council met today in city hall and agreed to postpone the hearing of a petition, asking for a change in the classification of the Arlington avenue zone districts. The planning commission will give the petitioners another hearing on their petition June 27 and council will act June 30.

Council and the planning commission has been requested to change the district from a B residence to a Local Business zone.

Some oppose and others favor the move. Counsel for the petitioners stated today that when the commission holds the rehearing he will show there is need of another store between Gibson and Wilson avenue and those in opposition to the petition claim they will show another store is not needed.

Ask $25,000 Damages; Receives Six Cents

(International News Service) CLEVELAND, June 20.—Then the young man saved up 19 cents and kissed his sweetheart three times.

Such an affair may yet come to pass if a recent decision handed down here is any criterion.

Mrs. Orville Butler was peeved. Dr. Leonard Butler, chief surgeon of the East End hospital here, had kissed her, according to her story. "I want $25,000 damages," Mrs. Butler exclaimed.

The case was duly considered and in a brief time the decision was handed down to the effect that Mrs. Butler had been the winner—but not for $25,000.

"How much, then?" her counsel asked. "Six cents," was the unflinching reply.

"But everything is fixed up now and I am leaving immediately for Hollywood but wish it was for New York and you, dear."

The International News Service Correspondent was visiting Richman in his bungalow palace at Beechhurst, Long Island, and heard the telephone conversation.

Believed It All Off.
Harry had revealed that he had broken with Clara four months ago because she had not answered his letters. He said he decided "it was all off" when he heard his fiancée was going around with Rex Bell, her leading man, and later was infatuated with a Texas man.

Recent reports from Dallas made him determine to telephone Clara and wish her happiness in her new emotional experience. He also intended to ask her to send back his engagement ring.

"I don't think Clara will talk to me," said Harry wistfully, as he asked the long distance telephone operator to get him Dallas.

But Clara did answer in a crystal-clear talkie voice which spilled over the telephone receiver.

"Hello, you big stiff," said Harry.
"Hello, Big Boy, where you been," said Clara.

"What's this I hear about you having a boy friend in Texas?"

"It's the bunk, Harry—Honest. I came here to settle that case that I thought was settled a year ago. My lawyer just fixed everything up and I'm leaving for Hollywood."

"You've been a naughty girl, Toots."
"I have not, Harry. I've been a good girl."

"Why didn't you write me?"

"Cut Her Finger."
"I cut my finger that time and couldn't. Then when you wouldn't believe me I figured you were off me."

"I'm going to England this fall to play London."

"Take me with you, Harry."

"You don't want me to ask for my engagement ring back?"

"No, No."
"And you haven't any boy friends but me?"

"I'll wire you as soon as I get to Hollywood and when I finish my picture I'll be on my way to New York in August."

"You love me, Toots?"

"I love you, Harry, and nobody else."
Handsome Harry hung up the receiver and threw a kiss at each one of the dozen or so photographs of Clara which gazed vivaciously at him from various portions of his bedroom.

"She loves me," said Harry happily. "You're a witness—she loves me."

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 20.—Prohibition has put me where I am, at least partly. There is no doubt of that."

Such was the reaction today of Dexter Churchill Dayton, 26, formerly of Kansas City who was sentenced yesterday to death a girl he desired for his wife Miss Marjorie O'Donnell, daughter of a Oil City, Pa., newspaper man.
Dayton had left his widowed mother in Kansas City, and came here two years ago to be a salesman. He participated in the darker side of Washington's limited night life, began drinking "bootleg" liquor, met Miss O'Donnell and other nice girls, fell in love but continued drinking.

Miss O'Donnell was employed in the office of the National Geographic Society.

The murder was committed in a room Dayton had taken at the Roosevelt Hotel after a one-sided drinking orgy. The girl's body was not found for nearly two days, after the youth half befuddled with liquor, telephoned the hotel clerk what he had done.

When police arrived they found Dayton kneeling at the side of the bed on which lay the girl, dead from strangulation. He was praying. A note was found which explained Miss O'Donnell had refused to marry him and that he had decided on murder and suicide. The last line said she lost his nerve and could not carry out the suicide after he had pulled the trigger of his gun and it failed to discharge.

Dayton's plea to a second degree murder charge after he had been indicted for first degree murder, was accepted by the court after a plea by his counsel, Daniel S. Ring and District Attorney Leo Rorer had agreed.

They are convinced Dayton's act was not premeditated.

ful to escape as well as he did.

Ban Smoking In California Forest

(International News Service)
PLACERVILLE, Cal., June 20.—
"A shovel and axe per car or pack train" and "no smoking except at camp or places of habitation" is the rule in Eldorado National Forest with the opening of the season of forest fire danger.

Announcement that the "shovel and axe" and "no smoking" rule are now being enforced, was made by Edwin P. Smith, supervisor of the forest.

One cause of unemployment is the willingness of job hunters to wait in line two hours before being off at the country club.

Miner Dies From Fractured Skull

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, June 20.—Joseph Terek, 40, a miner was killed instantly early today in the Brackenridge mine of the Allegheny Coal and Coke Company.

Terek was riding on a coal car and suffered a fractured skull when his head struck a section of the roof according to the report to the coroner.

"To come up to the surface" was a term used when the hoisting ring was simply a space marked on the ground. A scratch was made in the dirt to divide the ring. Terek had to come up to this mark to meet each other.

45 PIANOS LOANED FREE

Forty-five pianos (Grands, Players and Uprights, both new and used instruments) will be placed in homes of New Castle and vicinity, and they may be used until we need them—when they will be an indefinite time. On a moment's notice the Baldwin Company of Cincinnati were forced to take over the entire stock of their former dealer at Sharon, Pa. Having drainage, freight, possible scratching and marking meant a terrific loss in shipping to Cincinnati. These instruments have been transferred here and as a result our floors are overcrowded. We need getting rid of them as soon as possible. If you have ever thought of having a piano, now is the time. All pianos not sold outright will be placed in the homes of families who are interested in owning a piano in the immediate future, and for the valuable advertising we will receive by having good families use them. We reserve the right to select the homes in which these pianos are to be placed.

Positively No Charge for Anything

No cartage, no rent or any expense whatever. No phone orders. You must call at the store to make your selection. No matter if you live out of town you are just as welcome to one of these instruments as those residing right in the city. There are no strings to this offer, which comes but once in a lifetime.

Plan To Attend P. H. C. Convention

New Castle Delegates To Leave For Harrisburg To Attend Sessions

With all arrangements completed Past Presidents Roy Erwin, A. L. Conn, Helen Ray, Irma Halboth and L. E. Dandy, representatives from New Castle Circle, No. 5, Protected Home Circle, will attend the Grand Circle convention held in Harrisburg June 23, 24, 25. A number of qualified members from the local circle will also attend the sessions. The knickerbocker degree staff will leave on Sunday morning at eight o'clock from the Diamond, with their captain, Leonard E. Dandy. They leave by bus for the convention city to enter the competitive drills and big street parade featuring the convention.

For some time the staff has been in rehearsal for the coming event and many new features have been added to their beautiful work, bringing them prominently before the state gatherings.

A fine rehearsal was held Wednesday in the circle chamber and at this time the beautiful floor lamp given for the benefit of the team was won by G. E. Hall, holding ticket No. 38.

Rattlesnakes Rebel At Cold Weather

(International News Service)
CALEXICO, Cal., June 20.—Even the rattlesnakes kicked against the cold snap which visited Imperial valley recently.

Motorists passing the sand hills east of here, reported seeing scores of reptiles crawling along the pavement.

Their nocturnal wandering are now explained by their aversion to the cold.

The pavement retains the heat long after the sun has gone down and when the diamond backs start down the road they are doing it to keep warm, not to admire the scenery.

THIS MESSAGE IS FOR MILLIONS

ALL-BRAN Is Health News to Them

Millions know that headaches, general depression and other ailments are caused by constipation. They know that cathartics, pills and patent medicines will not effect permanent relief. They will be keenly interested in the natural, effective remedy for constipation that experience has revealed to other millions.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is eaten everywhere today for the relief and prevention of constipation. This delicious cereal adds roughage to the diet that is absolute assurance against this dreaded disease. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the original ALL-BRAN. It not only prevents constipation, but contains abundant iron that enriches the blood and brings the radiant glow of health to the complexion. With milk or fruit juices, it also brings important vitamins.

Eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily is one of the most healthful habits in the world. It is especially essential in reducing diets or cases of recurring constipation.

Your grocer has Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

CHICAGO BEST REGULATOR OF STREET TRAFFIC

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 20.—So-called "new" urban traffic congestion problems are at least 118 years old, the American Electric Railway Association convention learned here.

While experts were laying plans to meet what they regarded as unprecedented street conditions, Charles Gordon, Managing Director, produced an English traffic congestion court case of 1812. Lord Ellenborough, in the case of Rex vs. Cross then declared:

"Every unauthorized obstruction of a highway to the annoyance of the King's subjects is an indictable offense. The King's highway is not to be used as a stable-yard."

Chicago is regarded as having the best regulation. It has prohibited parking in down town sections with good results. The number of persons entering the loop increased 13 per cent; automobile traffic 18.33 per cent, and motor vehicle registration 11.47 per cent during the first two years of the ordinance. Accidents also have decreased.

Parking restrictions are growing daily in towns of all sizes, local transportation leaders declare. One confined to urban centers, restrictions now are said to be reading down to almost every incorporated village in the United States.

Aged Recluse Comments On Life

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 20.—She's 82 years of age, has seen but one motion picture show in her life and hasn't seen Market street, San Francisco's famous roaring thoroughfare since three days before the earthquake and fire which destroyed the city in 1906.

Yet she's happy and contented and has a lot of "good ideas."

She is Mrs. Mary A. Elliott and here are a few samples she delivered today:

"The movie I saw was a western. I thought of Booth and Barrett and I don't want to see another."

"Automobiles make me dizzy, but I'd like to go up in an airplane."

"Equality in marriage is breaking up the home. Man is the master. A wife can't get along and win an argument. She shouldn't try."

"The radio is the greatest blessing today and divorce the greatest evil."

"But what can women expect? They talk to men worse than I'd talk to my cat."

Mrs. Elliott came to San Francisco a bride in 1864.

She hasn't been outside her garden walls but a few times in thirty years.

"My heart's so bad I call it my sweetheart. I think of it so often," she explained.

French Capital Has Many Fine Trees

(International News Service)
PARIS, June 20.—Few cities can boast as many fine trees as the French capital, care having been taken to keep them along the crowded boulevards and thoroughfares where land is far from cheap. During the present year, one million francs will be spent in "reforesting" the various streets. Plane trees will replace some of the chestnuts in the Avenues de l'Observatoire and the Grande Armee planes and elms will be set in the Boulevard Sebastopol. Citrons and chestnuts will be planted in the old Boulevard St. Germain and along the Quai du Marche Neuf there will be sophoras.

STRESSES DANGER IN HOME HAZARDS

HARRISBURG, June 20—Dr. J. Bruce McCreary, deputy secretary of health, today issued a warning on the hazard of home accidents. "Naturally the subject of automobile accidents in the United States receives much attention," Dr. McCreary said. The consistent increase in their number and the spectacular manner in which such casualties are occasioned attract human interest. "It may be surprising however to know that in 1929 the nation's automobile fatalities were 31,500, while the home accident deaths for the same period reached the amazing total of 24,000. Another astounding fact is that for each automobile fatality there were approximately thirty-five non-fatal injuries; but for each home accident death there were approximately 200 injuries. Which rather eloquently indicates that the home as well as the highways are at present responsible for much damage to American citizens. "Similarly to automobile accidents, home casualties are for the most part directly traceable to thoughtlessness or carelessness. If these matters were unavoidable it would be bad enough; on the other hand, the pathos of the present situation lies in the fact that they need not have occurred. Reasonable caution and a measure of care would have prevented the majority of them. "The most important cause of fatal home accidents is falls. One-half of all deaths from falls occur in the home. Other chief causes of home accidents are burns, scalds, asphyxiation and suffocation, poisons, fires, explosions and fire arms. Cuts on sharp instruments and broken glass take another large toll, as also do collisions with inanimate objects and persons. Reasonable attention and thoughtfulness are the practical and efficient antidotes for the present deplorable situation," Dr. McCreary concluded.

Rules Against Use Of Bread Coloring

HARRISBURG, June 20—The practice of artificially coloring bread largely for decorative purposes, has come into vogue in Pennsylvania during recent months, according to the bureau of foods and chemistry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. Investigations of this bread have been made by food officials and as a result the bureau has taken the position that the sale of artificially colored bread is objectionable, especially when yellow color is employed, since this makes the bread appear to contain a larger proportion of eggs than is actually the case. To protect the public, the bureau has declared that the use of artificial yellow color in bread is a violation of the pure food law and is therefore, prohibited in Pennsylvania.

Judging from the interference the radio broadcasting stations have started that war in the air we have heard predicted.

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders From The Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture

Promote Chick Health—Prevent in every way possible the carrying of infection from mature fowls and from contaminated ground to the young chicks. Keep young and old stock in separate enclosures.

Stop Dahlia Suckers—Dahlias frequently send up shoots from their roots. These should be pinched off at the ground line to throw all the strength into the main stalk.

Fight Cucumber Pest—The striped cucumber beetle can be controlled by spraying with two pounds of lead arsenate in 50 gallons of Bordeaux mixture. Young plants can be protected with cones made of fly-screening. Protective cones made of cloth or other materials are satisfactory if the screen openings are not larger than one-tenth inch.

Thin Orchard Fruits—Apples and early peaches should be thinned to six to eight inches apart, say State College fruit specialists. Late peaches can be spaced three to four inches apart. Better color, large size and fewer injured fruits will result.

Keep Garden Occupied—Succession plantings permit the gardener to keep the soil in use and to grow a steady supply of vegetables from the land. Leafy plants should follow root crops, and vice versa.

Control Meadow Weeds—Buckhorn in slightly infested pastures and meadows can be removed by digging with a hoe or spud. Severe infestations require plowing and the use of cultivated crops for two seasons.

Lengthen Flower Period—If old, withered blossoms are removed the flowering period of ornamentals will be prolonged.

The soil is the habitation of countless organisms endowed with enormous energy. The four chief groups are: bacteria, fungi, algae, and protozoa.

John Paul Jones
Saving The Brig "John"

AFTER A SECOND VOYAGE TO THE WEST AFRICAN COAST FOR SLAVES, JOHN PAUL GAVE UP THIS CRUEL TRAFFIC IN DISGUST AND, QUITTING HIS SHIP AT KINGSTON, JAMAICA, SAILED FOR SCOTLAND AS A PASSENGER ON THE BRIG "JOHN".

(Copyright, 1930, by J. Carroll Mansfield)

IN MID-ATLANTIC THE DREADED YELLOW FEVER BROKE OUT ON BOARD. THE CAPTAIN AND MATES DIED, AND THERE WAS NOT A TRAINED NAVIGATOR LEFT AMONG THE FEW SAILORS THAT ESCAPED THE PLAGUE.

IN THIS EMERGENCY JOHN PAUL, WHO WAS THEN ONLY TWENTY, ASSUMED COMMAND AND DISPLAYED HIS ABILITY AS A NAVIGATOR BY BRINGING THE BRIG AND ITS VALUABLE CARGO SAFELY INTO PORT.

THE OWNERS REWARDED JOHN PAUL BY MAKING HIM CAPTAIN OF ONE OF THEIR SHIPS. IN THEIR EMPLOY YOUNG CAPTAIN PAUL MADE TWO VOYAGES TO THE WEST INDIES.

After Fanning Three Times,
Mighty Sultan Of Swat

ATHLETICS TOP CLEVELAND TEAM

By COPLAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, June 20.—"To wake the soul by tender strokes of art." Now George Herman Ruth is just a plain man and very likely never heard of the big quill and ink gentleman, the late Mr. Poe, but today one might well imagine the Bambino as that famed writer.

For Babe worked his pretty art overtime yesterday and aroused thousands of hard-boiled baseball souls, playing a dramatic tune on their heartstrings, as the Yankees grabbed a game off the Detroit Tigers, 5 to 4. Three times the great one faced the curves of George Uhle, bengal right-hander, and thrice he merely beat away the flies from his brow. Here was drama, indeed, surely a spectacle and the fans drank of it deeply in huge intakes, content that they were seeing life and a sporting climax. But that was just Mr. Ruth's great art and along in the seventh the Bambino staged his thrilling grand finale—a mighty homer, his 22nd of the season, and the run the New Yorkers needed to win.

But, oh ho and a couple of ahems! The Yanks did not advance for the league leading Athletics again who won their ninth of the season.

Ray Kolp of the Cincinnati Reds was too good for the National leaders, Brooklyn, halting their pennant aspirations in a shutout, 5 to 0. The flock only got 7 hits and Senor Acopileague gave the Reds 8 and Morrison, who replaced the Havanian, permitted three more. It was the Cuban pitcher's first failure of the year.

The Cubs kept right in the race by trouncing the Braves 10 to 4. Hack Wilson got his 19th homer and Woody English also circled. Guy Bush held the Braves to six single-banquets. Art Shires whanged the ball safely three out of four trials, aiding the Senators to defeat his former teammates, the Chicago White Sox, 3 to 1.

MacFayden puzzled the Brownies, who were able to basket only three hits and the Red Sox triumphed 4 to 0.

New York and Pittsburgh and Philadelphia and St. Louis in the National plant were rain-swept.

Blaine And Smith Engage In Pitching Battle As Central Presbyterians Win

The Central Presbyterians downed the First Baptists 5 to 4 in a game played at the Scotland Lane field on Thursday night. It was a pitchers' battle between Blaine and Smith, with the former gaining the verdict. The playing of Wochner was a feature of the game. He caught several long flies and had a triple at bat. Chill and Melder had doubles.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

After striking out three times in a row yesterday Babe Ruth hit the ball for a home run when the Yanks played the Tigers at New York.

Routier Para, the rugged Chilean 112 pounder will arrive here early Sunday morning for his bout with Willie Davies, Monday night.

Arch Cuno and Bat Terry have a couple of bantamweights who will meet in a week or two here.

Art Shires who went to the Senators smashed out three hits in four times at bat against Chicago yesterday.

Griffiths park, home of the Washington Senators, will be the scene of seven night football games this season.

In answer to a letter: Emmett Rocco got the decision in the first fight and Risko won the award in the second.

Tommy Jones who sprained an ankle refereeing at the box was out for an auto ride last night but he cannot yet use his foot.

Frank Klaus, former middleweight champion of the world visited George Chip, Jimmy Dime and the writer yesterday.

He walked into the Leslie and Billy Williams didn't see him. A travelling man was talking about middleweights.

"Yes, we had a good middleweight here once. George Chip knocked out the champion, Frank Klaus, at Pittsburgh," said Williams.

Frank had been standing back and Williams hadn't seen him. He stepped to the desk and said to Williams: "Couldn't tell me where I could find that fellow?" smiled Klaus, a husky looking chap who now weighs about 175.

"Oh, Hello Frank," ejaculated Billy. "Sure, I'll phone him you're in town."

Abbe K won the Classified pace $300 purse at Mansfield and the Deemster took the Classified trot, purse $300, yesterday.

Effie Hanover, colt, won the 2:26 trot, purse $400, at the opening of the William Penn circuit at Bloomsburg.

Willie Davies and Midget Wolgast will fight for the flyweight championship at Pittsburgh in September, reports state.

South Hill Team Tops Scarrazzos

The South Hill team topped the Scarrazzo Coals 4 to 3 in a game played at the South Hill field last night. Timphio on the knoll for the South Hill team pitched a fine game, holding the visitors to five hits, and fanning nine men. Marino on the hill for the Scarrazzo team allowed six hits and fanned five men. General Fazzone and F. Ross hit for extra-bases.

McCafferty To Box Dan Taylor

Will Appear In Semi-Final To Davies-Para 10-Round Bout

ARNOLD TO MEET CLEVELAND BOY

Boxing fans throughout eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania will journey here Monday night to see the flyweight clash between Willie Davies of Charleroi and Routier Para of Chile. The battlers are in training, Davies at his mountain camp and Para in New York city.

Of the two Para, it is reported is the most rugged and Davies the cleverer. They have fought Black Bill and all the other topnotchers, and the clash here should be a fast, scintillating battle from start to end.

Davies has never fought a drab fight here while Routier likes to tear in. If he does this here he will find Davies ready to meet him and fans are looking forward to the scrap.

Tom McCafferty punched Joe Edwards full of holes a few weeks ago and will attempt to do the same to Danny Taylor who beat Frankie Frey. McCafferty is from New Castle. They are middleweights.

Tommy Arnold's friends are pulling for him to beat Roger Shea in the second preliminary. Arnold got a close decision over Shea a few weeks ago when he returned and got a draw with Mike Lucas.

There will be lots of action when Johnny Freed and Young Shelly meet in the first six round bout. All the local boys are working out hard and each hopes to come through with a victory.

Congregationals Trim Third U. P.

Steinbrink Features Game At Clifton Flats By Hitting Homer With Bases
Full

The First Congregationals behind good pitching by Seamans and a home run by Steinbrink in the sixth inning with the bases full, downed the Third U. P. at the Clifton Flats Field 12 to 4 in a New Castle Church League game last night.

Despite the lopsided score the game was interesting in every inning, when Steinbrink hit his homer the Congregationals only led 7 to 4.

Sharon Steel Hoop Team Falls To Cascades In Game At Frank Avenue Field

The Cascade A. C. stepped out of the City-County loop long enough last night to defeat the Sharon Steel Hoop team 5 to 2 in a game played at the Frank Avenue field.

The fielding of M. Fabian held the Sharon boys at bay, his one-handed catch of a hard hit liner to right was one of the bright features of the game. The playing of Lenhart at short, the hitting by Gall and the sensational pitching by Coates were the big features of the game. Kulich, Lenhart and Ryan figured in a lightning double play.

Coates pitched a great game, holding the heavy hitting Steel Hoop boys to six hits and fanning eight men.

Reed on the hill for the visitors allowed ten hits and fanned nine men. Tonight at the Frank Avenue field the Cascades meet the West Pittsburgh Garlands in a postponed City-County League game. The game starts at 6:30 o'clock. This game was postponed from Wednesday.

Is High Point Scorer
With Seventeen Points

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., June 20.—The American Legion Troop of Boy Scouts won the scout track meet held at the Lincoln athletic field Thursday afternoon, with a score of 52 points. Seventy-five scouts were entered in the meet, and all boys who placed in an event will receive credit on their scout athletic merit badges. The American Legion Troop did not seem to have much opposition if one is to decide by final score, but in reality most of the events were quite close. Barnes of the Legion troop was high point scorer with seventeen points. Nye came next with 14 points and Logue close behind with 10 points. Frank MacIoge deserves much credit for obtaining 13 points for the Kiwanis. He was in practically every event and gave those who placed much opposition. Orion Logue did a very fine piece of work in scoring 10 points for his troop. He won the mile by at least 100 yards, and also took the half mile. Kiwanis Troop 13 and Wurttemberg Troop 1 tied for third place, each scoring 4 points. MacIoge of Kiwanis 13 scored for his troop and H. Timberlin of Wurttemberg, scored the 4 points for his troop. The Methodists won second place by scoring 15 points.

The list of events and winners follows:

100 yard dash—1st, Nye, American Legion; 2nd, Barnes, American Legion; 3rd, Kapperman, American Legion. Time 12 seconds.

440 yard dash—1st, Duffy, American Legion; 2nd, Timberlin, Wurttemberg; 3rd, Lackey, Methodist. Time 67 seconds.

1 Mile Run—1st, Logue, Methodist; 2nd, Duffy, American Legion; 3rd, McDonald, Legion. Time 6 minutes.

220 yard dash—1st, Nye, Legion; 2nd, Barnes, Legion; 3rd, Lackey, Methodist. Time 29 seconds.

One-half mile—1st, Logue, Methodist; 2nd, Howells, Legion; 3rd, Hall, Methodist. Time 2 minutes 4 seconds.

Broad Jump—1st, Barnes, Legion; 2nd, Nye, Legion; 3rd, MacIoge, Kiwanis. Distance, 16 ft. 6 inches.

1 Mile Relay—1st, American Legion; 2nd, Methodist; 3rd, Legion.

Gangster Is Piker To Ancient Tribe

LONDON, June 20—The American gangster with his expensive machine guns is a comparative piker alongside of the fierce, barbaric tribes of 1,300 years ago, in expensive weapons, at least.

An exhibition of "Art in the Dark Ages" here reveals that savages used gold lavishly in their weapons. One chieftain used a spur of solid gold weighing more than 13 ounces, highly decorative gold-mounted daggers, an iron spearhead with a band of red cloisonne enamel on a gold base above the mouth and wore a gold collar of six curved almost oblong plates embossed with scenes and figures.

Neither was his horse neglected. It was provided with a pair of gold trappings with gold rivets.

These relics were removed from a tomb of a Lombard chieftain who led his warriors across the Danube in 536 and began the conquest of Italy. Also found in the tomb were the gold mount of a horse collar with two grotesque wolf-like heads to fill the end panels and a sword and helmet of iron, both mounted in gold.

HALL CAINE TO HONOR FRIEND

Although still unequal to the strain of public appearances, Sir Hall Caine hopes to be well enough to take part in the centenary celebration in the Isle of Man of his late friend, T. E. Brown, the Manx poet. The novelist has just returned home after a three months stay in France, and Switzerland for his health.

Wild Horses Caught On Estate Of Duke

(International News Service)
DULMEN, June 20—The annual roundup of the last wild horses in Europe has again taken place on the estate of the Duke of Croy.

The animals, some 200 in all, live in an enclosure of about 1,200 acres. Each year a great number of beaters surround them and drive them slowly forward until they are all penned in a corral. The yearling stallions are then thrown and haltered, and sold at auction.

The horses are small, somewhat taller than Shetlands but not so heavy in the body. They are of all colors, but each one has a black stripe running along the back from the withers. They are quickly tamed and almost never vicious.

Great numbers of spectators are attracted every year by the spectacle. The Duke of Croy married his first wife Miss Nancy Leishmann, daughter of the late John G. Leishmann, former American Ambassador to Germany.

Tiny Town Is Geographical Center

(International News Service)
CENTER OSSIPER N. H. June 20—While hundreds of New Hampshire residents and tourists visit the Ossipee during the vacation season, very few have stood on the spot, a tiny island in the middle of the Ossipee river, where two states, three counties, and four towns meet. The island comprises a very small area of a few square feet covered with a scant growth of small trees, but it boasts a singular patchwork of territory including the states of Maine and New Hampshire, the counties of Carroll, N. H., and York and Oxford in Maine, and the towns of Effingham and Freedom, N. H., and Parsonsfield and Porter, Me.

Cripple, Trapped, Burned To Death

BALTIMORE, June 20—Charles Swift, one of three brothers of the firm of M. J. Swift & Co., burlap bag manufacturers, was burned to death in a fire which wrecked the interior of the plant here.

Swift, a cripple, was trapped on the third floor. Flames and smoke drove back police and firemen who made repeated attempts to rescue him.

Eight employees, including two girls, succeeded in making their way out of the building.

Chicago Students Borrowed $50,000

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, June 20—Fifty-thousand dollars was borrowed by students last year from the loan fund of the University of Chicago, without a single loss, according to William J. Mather, cashier of the fund.

The fund, maintained by philanthropists who contribute regularly, is for the convenience of students who must borrow to continue their education. It now totals $65,000.

In the ten years that the fund has been in existence, the loss has been negligible, Mather declared.

"PRISONER" WILL NOT LEAVE

Lewisham, England, police have a prisoner in a cell of their station which they are anxious to get rid of, but has no desire to go. It is a large swan, which alighted in a busy street and tied up traffic. Two even larger policemen finally captured it. Police reports show that it has a large appetite and no friends.

It always happens when one driver is in a big car and the other in a reverie.

Oceanic Telephone Calls Increasing

WASHINGTON, June 20—A saving of approximately $400,000 to the public using the transatlantic telephone service, seen as a result of the general rate reduction which went into effect May 11, a trade estimate based on last year's telephone traffic reveals, it was stated orally May 27 on behalf of the transportation division of the Department of Commerce.

The chief factor enabling the reduction is the increased usage of service, it was said. For the entire year 1929, transatlantic telephone conversations averaged about 30 per cent over 1928.
